REPORTS AND DISASTERS
Chatham, Jan. 24—Efforts made today by the tug Mercury and the revenue cutter Acushnet to float the schooner S. G. Haskell, stranded on Handkerchief Shoal proved unavailing and tonight the schooner in her hold, her pumps having proved unavailing and tonight the schooner in the shoal with 11 feet of water in her hold, her pumps having proved inadequate. Every attempt to float the vessel was rendered futile by the breaking of the hawsers used.

This afternoon the Mercury went to Vineyard Haven, whence she will return to morrow with the wrecking lighter Oak. A powerful pump will be placed aboard the schooner in an attempt to keep her hold free of water.

The sea tonight is comparatively smooth and the weather indications are good. A moderate south wind is blowing, The crew of the stranded vessel is still aboard her.

The was unconscious, and it was only after hard work that he was revived, after being taken aboard. The man's name is Si-STOVES-NEW AND SECOND HAND Stoves and Pipe. All work and jobbing promptly attended to. KEEMAN & RATCH-FORD, 21 Waterloo street. Phone, Main 784. Maritime WATCH MAKERS Express WATCH, CLOCK, JEWELRY AND OP-tical repairing. 'Phone 1389. CONTRACTORS and BUILDERS The government steamer Lady Laurier arrived Saturday from Whitehead. On Thursday last she was towing the Canso buoy to Whitehead when the hawser parted. A boat was lowered to make repairs to the hawser. The sea was running very high and the boat containing six men upset. A second boat was lowered and the men were saved. One of them was only saved by the fact that he was lying over an oar. His head was in the water, and he was unconscious, and it was only after hard work that he was revived, after being taken aboard. The man's name is Simon Porrier. The boat was in charge of Boatswain Johnson. Owing to the gale the buoy was abandoned until the next day, when it was again secured and taken to Whitehead. Quick dispatch was given to the Norwegian steamer Livingston, under charter to the Thomson line. She arrived here on Monday and sailed at 1 o'clock yesterday with a full freight for Havana, including potatoes and other general cargo. The Havana trade from this port is rapidly increasing as the exports show. The Livingston took about 7,000 barrels of potatoes.

ton took about 7,000 barrels of potatoes.

Allan line steamship Tunisian, which left this port last Saturday took away a cargo valued as follows: Canadian goods, $221,240; foreign goods, $131,281; total value of cargo, $352,521. Among her freight was 95,355 bushels of wheat, 7,326 boxes of cheese, 320 barrels of apples, 364,621 feet spruce deals and 834 packages of United States provisions. This is the second largest cargo to go forward and there is more to follow.

Some men are kept so busy boasting of what they are going to do that they have no time to do anything.
