

ADDRESS TO DR. KELLOGG.

To the Reverend S. H. Kellogg, D.D., from the congregation of St. James Square Presbyterian Church.

Reverend and Dear Sir :

The congregation of St. James' Square Presbyterian Church, on the termination of your pastorate among them and your proceeding to India in accordance with the appointment of the Board of Missions of the Presbyterian Church of the U. S. A. and at the urgent request of the missionaries of different denominations in that country, to engage in Biblical revision and other work of great importance in the missionary field, cannot allow the tie which has so happily bound us as pastor and people to be severed without expressing our high appreciation of the able and faithful services which you have rendered to the congregation during the past six years.

Your pulpit administrations powerful, evangelical and searching ; your ability in expounding, defending and applying Divine truth ; and your marvellous skill in reconciling that truth with the ascertained truths of science, will always be remembered by us, and we trust that the word spoken by you will be treasured up in our hearts and bear fruit in our lives. The substantial increase in the congregation, notwithstanding the movement of so many from the more central parts of the city, and more especially the large number of young people from the families of the congregation who have been led, under your ministry, publicly to acknowledge Jesus as their Saviour, attest the zeal and earnestness with which you have laboured.

While gratefully acknowledging the hand of God in all that has been accomplished, the congregation recognize in you the chief instrument in their prosperity.

When we learned of the earnest and persistent efforts of the missionaries in India to secure your
