

THE EVENING TIMES.

ST. JOHN, N. B., FEB. 24, 1906.

A SPLENDID INCREASE
It will be observed by reference to the other page that the value of the exports by winter port steamers from this port during the current season is about within a million dollars of the total value for last season. It would only take more such cargoes as the Larkspur carried on one voyage this season to make the total greater than last year's. As we may expect something like the cargoes more, large and small, to be carried, it would seem that the total value of the exports of this season could reach $20,000,000. Possibly this may be too large an estimate, but in any case there will be no substantial decrease in the value of the exports of this season.

THE CHURCH IN THE WEST
In making an appeal for the support of the church in the West, the Rev. Mr. [Name] has been successful in securing a large number of contributions. The church is in a position to meet the needs of the community, and the Rev. Mr. [Name] has been successful in securing a large number of contributions. The church is in a position to meet the needs of the community, and the Rev. Mr. [Name] has been successful in securing a large number of contributions.

AN INTERESTING REPORT
In his annual report to the directors, Dr. [Name] has given an interesting account of the work of the hospital during the past year. The hospital has been successful in treating a large number of patients, and the Rev. Mr. [Name] has been successful in securing a large number of contributions.
