What would such a holding bring in the open market, His Honor asked.

Witness said neither public nor private enterprise would have been justified in going ahead with the development. He asserted that data in 1920 would have shown him that the dependable horsepower would be 3,000 horsepower only. He said he had no criticism of the installing of a capacity for 11,000 h.p. at the development at Musquash. This completed Mr. Lee's evidence.
