ST. ROSE'S BALL TEAM GUESTS

Happy Time in Milford Hall—Prospect of Good Field Next Year.

The members of St. Rose's baseball team, champions of the West End Intermediate League, were the guests of St. Rose's Dramatic Club, at a social held in their hall in Milford last evening. Patrick Murray presided and on the platform with him were Joseph Fitzgerald, manager of the team, and Councilor John T. O'Brien. After an address of welcome to the assemblage and some complimentary remarks regarding the success attending the efforts of the baseball team the chairman called on Mr. Fitzgerald, who voiced his appreciation and that of the members of his team for the mark of appreciation tendered them by the club.

Councilor O'Brien then complimented the team for their wonderful showing during the season and predicted that it would not be long before they would be able to branch out and take their place among the senior organizations. He said that they had been granted permission to assess for $10.00 to procure a suitable athletic field for the parish of this city. He said that they hoped to procure a proper site and have the field ready for next season. His remarks were greeted by prolonged applause.

John J. O'Toole and John U. Hagerly, members of the dramatic club, then presented a sketch entitled "Modern School for Actors." Both gave clever interpretations and brought the comedy out in a manner which had the audience convulsed with laughter. They were accorded appreciative applause.

A baseball chorus was sung by Mary Molloy, Marion Dalton, Loretta Hennessy, Louise Gould, Ellen O'Toole, Isabelle Crilly, Rose McFadden, Helen Sexton and Frances Gillis. Solos were also sung by Eddie O'Toole and Miss Humphrey after which dancing was enjoyed.

SEPTEMBER BRIDES

Killorn-Ring.

A wedding of interest in St. John and along the Miramichi River was solemnized on Thursday of last week when Miss Margaret Bernetta Ring, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Ring, formerly of St. John, was united in marriage to James Joseph Killorn of this city, by Rev. F. C. Ryan with nuptial mass in St. Thomas' church, Redbank. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Murdoch Ring of Moncton, looked charming in a traveling suit of navy velvet embroidered with silk and sequins. She wore a large picture hat with ostrich trimmings and carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses. Miss Stella Power acted as bridesmaid and wore a becoming suit of taupe velvet with hat to match and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses and fern. Patrick Power was best man. Mr. Fitzgerald played the wedding march. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Sullivan. Mr. and Mrs. Killorn left on a honeymoon trip which will be spent along the Miramichi. On their return they will reside in St. John where the groom is a member of the staff of the Canadian customs. He is a returned soldier and a former member of the original 26th battalion. The bride has been a bookkeeper and stenographer for several years with Mr. Sullivan at Redbank. Many friends here and elsewhere will join in extending best wishes.

Graham-Harrington.

St. Peter's church was the scene of a very brilliant wedding at 5.15 this morning, when, with nuptial high mass, Rev. G. Coffin, C.S.B., united in marriage Francis A. Graham, son of Bart Graham of Fairville, and Mary Beatrice Harrington, daughter of Daniel Harrington, 149 Adelaide street. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked very lovely in a navy blue tricot-tailored suit, with picture hat of black panne velvet, and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses. Miss Geraldine O'Neill, niece of the bride, was attendant, and wore a suit of coupon broadcloth with hat to match, and mink throw. She wore a corsage bouquet of Ophelia roses. Miss Geraldine O'Neill, niece of the bride, was attendant, and wore a suit of coupon broadcloth with hat to match, and mink throw. She wore a corsage bouquet of sweet peas. John Graham supported the groom. The bride entered the church to the strains of the wedding march, and at the offertory of the mass, Patrick Graham, cousin of the groom, sang Ave Maria, very effectively. After the wedding the bridal party motored to the home of the bride, where a dainty wedding breakfast was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Graham left on the train for a visit to Charlottetown, P. E. I. The popularity of the bride and groom was testified to by the numerous gifts of silver, cut glass, china, etc., received. The bride is a graduate of the Provincial Normal School, and also a graduate of Hartford Hospital training school class 1919, and has been nursing in Hartford until recently. The groom is a popular lumber contractor of the province. A host of friends in Hartford and St. John extend their best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Graham, who, upon their return will reside at 32 Manawagonish road.

Lawson, George R. Andrews, John H. Marr, Thos. McFarlane, Allan J. Barbour, Wm. D. Hatfield, Herbert J. Brown, George W. Carleton, John V. Holland, Bernard J. McGovern, M. T. Coholan. Petit jury—Stanley C. Webb, George A. Stackhouse, Marshall D. Austin, G. W. Hatheway, John A. Driscoll, George P. Kelly, Horace G. Black, George Bishop, Charles A. Clayton, William W. Hawker, John S. March, R. G. Dyke, Beverly T. Vincent, A. Chip Ritchie, T. Carleton Olive, Daniel J. Hamilton, C. B. Allan, A. G. Gregory, C. Wesley, J. J. Irvine and Herbert Rice.

Judge's Address.

Before charging the grand jury, Judge Barry referred to the absence of Jurymen Brown and said that he would have to impose a fine unless the absent members could account for his non-appearance. Mr. Brown, however, arrived after the jury had been charged.

His honor referred to the two cases which had already been laid before him—that of the King against John Paris, and the King against Albert Sullivan. He first reviewed the evidence in the Sullivan case. The charge against John Paris, he said, was that he did kill and murder Sarah Jane McAuley on August 2. Going over the depositions of witnesses at the previous examination he said that the dead child was nine years of age and was slightly deformed through hip disease. She and her father, Hattie Levine, aged 11, went with the Levine girl's father's dinner to Douglas avenue and afterwards were seen picking berries. The little McAuley girl went with him and this was the last time she had been seen alive. A week later her body was found buried near the place where she was last seen. It was evident, the judge said, that she did not die a natural death—there was no doubt of murder.

He said that scores of men had been held, but the Levine girl could not identify them. Then Paris was arrested and Hattie Levine in her testimony said that the man was about the same size as Paris and looked like him but the mustache makes him look different.

"Walter Humphrey," Judge Barry said, "tells a story which is very inconsistent, in fact almost conclusive." On August 2, he said that he rowed Paris across the river and on August 3 he saw Paris again and Paris asked him to row him across the river again. While in the boat, Humphrey testified, Paris told what had happened in the park the previous day and asked him to go to the park and help him "cover up that kid." If this is true, the judge remarked, it is conclusive.

Humphrey said that some days later he saw Paris trying to keep out of the way of the police. There was lots of evidence, his honor said, corroborative of the evidence given by Humphrey with the exception of that covering the conversation in the boat. Dr. Ambrose, in his evidence, said that death was instantaneous and there was evidence of rape.

Addressing the foreman, Judge Barry instructed him to swear all the witnesses himself or delegate somebody to do it in the case of his absence. The practice before this he said had been to swear the witnesses in court and then send them in to the grand jury, but he found in a recent case in Westmorland that some of the witnesses had not been sworn at all. He said that he expected another indictment of murder would be brought in later, as well as one of breaking and entering.

The grand jury then withdrew and started to hear evidence in the case against John Paris. After hearing the testimony of Walter Humphrey, Sergeant Detective John T. Power, Dr. H. L. Ambrose, provincial pathologist, and Hattie Levine, the grand jury adjourned until 2.30 o'clock. Further evidence will be taken on this case this afternoon.

The gravity of the cases on the criminal docket attracted great crowds to the hearing and an hour before the court was due to sit, there were hundreds gathered about the doors. Very few, however, with the exception of jurymen, witnesses and members of the legal profession and press were allowed to gain admittance.
