MUCH BETTER IS REPORT ON COLONEL TODAY

Roosevelt Had Several Hours Sleep and Shows Good Effects

Schrank Makes Detailed Statement to Police Chief—Three New York Aliens Threaten Belief He is Inmate

(Canadian Press) Oct. 16—Colonel Roosevelt awoke at six twenty this morning after more than three hours of unbroken rest, "feeling fine," he told Miss Fitzgerald, night nurse, as he entered his room prepared to take his clinical reading. At that time his pulse was seventy-four, temperature 98.6 and his respiration twenty. This shows a marked improvement over his condition at ten o'clock last night.

During the early hours of the night Colonel Roosevelt's sleep often was broken and he was unable to get up without leaving a trail of sweat. At that time his pulse was at one hundred, and it hardly needed his testimony that he was "feeling fine" to confirm his general appearance.

ST. JOHN'S NEW BRIDES

They Were Approved Today and Will go to Council on Monday—The Provisions

Important amendments to the city fire laws were approved by the commissioners today and will be passed by the common council on Monday.

The fire districts are outlined as follows: 1st—All the eastern side of the harbor to the northward of the centre of King street and southward of the centre of Marsh road, City road and Pond street.

2nd—All the eastern side of the harbor to the northward and westward of the centre of King street.

3rd—All the eastern side of the harbor south of the centre of King street.

4th—All the western side of the harbor. Some of the other new sections provide: The chief engineer shall hold his office during the will and pleasure of the common council subject to the commission of public safety, whose orders, whether written or verbal, he shall obey and execute at all times.

5th—The chief shall, from time to time, make and establish such rules as he may deem expedient for the government of the department and shall report them to the commissioner of public safety and the fire department for their approval.

6th—Any person who shall wilfully, maliciously or carelessly, cause a false alarm of fire in any manner shall be liable to a fine of $100.

7th—No person shall put or keep any or straw either loose or baled, in any warehouse on any public wharf in the city of St. John under penalty of a fine of $100 for each and every offence and a further fine of $50 for each and every 24 hours the same shall remain in such place.

A further penalty of $50 a day is provided for keeping hay in such places after it has been ordered removed. This does not apply to hay in transit which is allowed forty-eight hours, with a penalty of $100 a day for any further time.

Restrictions are provided for the erection of smokehouses in the city or the use of any buildings for that purpose. The storage of powder, gasoline or other explosives is prohibited in districts 1, 2 and 3 except in appointed magazines. Merchants will be allowed to keep only twenty-five pounds of gun powder in retail stores and that upon written permission of the chief and under restrictions. Retailers not having specially protected tanks for gasoline will be allowed to keep only one gallon in their store if there is any dwelling in the same building or two gallons if otherwise.

Owners of buildings in which elevators longer than a month is prohibited and all shafts must be kept in metal receptacles, which must be supplied by the landlords. The fire department is given authority to enter premises to enforce this law.

Improvements in warehouses in such a way as to block the entrance by doors, windows or stairways is prohibited. Fire hydrants shall be used for fire purposes only.

The fire department is given authority to cut electrical wires when necessary and electrical, telegraph and telephone companies are required to shut off power from their wires when ordered to do so.

ALLIED KINGS EXPECTED TO CROSS THE RUBICON TODAY—THE PROBABLE PLAN OF BULGARIA AND SERBIA

There has still been no declaration of war, but Turkey has recalled her ministers from Greece and the Balkan states, and the allied kings are expected to declare, by royal proclamation today, that hostilities have been begun.

News from the theatre of war is still withheld, for the correspondents have not yet been allowed to proceed to the front, but the Bulgarian army is believed to be ready to strike at Adrianople, while the Serbian army is divided into three forces.

One will march on Uckub, Macedonia, by the Morava valley. The second, after getting in touch with the Bulgarian forces in the neighborhood of Kostendil, will move on Uckub from the east through the Serb Palanka pass and Kumanovo. The third will, it is expected, unite with the Montenegrin forces in the Albanian Alps and the Novitsar district.

The upper Maritza River, with the object of invading Thrace, is estimated to number a quarter of a million men.
