

D.D. We reciprocate most heartily the expressions of brotherly affection contained in these addresses, and though we cannot see any near prospect of the organic unification of our different connexions as referred to by our brethren of the Methodist Church of Canada, we trust this fact will not in any measure lessen the sincere affection and willing co-operation which has so long existed between us.

2. That our brethren, Revs. W. Bee, T. Guttery, and R. Walker, Esq., be appointed to prepare a suitable address, conveying our reciprocal regards to the Methodist Church of Canada, and to attend the Conference of that Church as a fraternal deputation from this assembly.

3. The Rev. Thomas Gales, of the Prohibitory League, having addressed the Conference, the following minute was passed:

"That we assure the Rev. T. Gales, who has just addressed us, that we have listened with great pleasure to the remarks he has made in relation to prohibition, that the movement has our unqualified sympathy, and that we pledge our utmost influence and help in securing prohibition."

21. What Votes of Thanks were passed by the Conference?

1. That a vote of thanks be tendered to the retiring President, Bro. R. Walker, for his unceasing efforts for the promotion of our Church's welfare.

2. That the thanks of the Meeting be given to Bro. W. S. Hughan, for his services during the year as Secretary, and as G. C. D. of Conference.

3. That the thanks of the Conference be tendered to the Rev. G. Lamb for the admirable sermon preached before the Conference on Friday night, which we consider appropriate in selection, powerful in application, and in every way calculated to do good.

4. That the Conference takes this opportunity of expressing its thanks to Rev. J. Edgar for his able and appropriate charge delivered to the Candidates received into full connection.

5. That the thanks of the Conference be presented to Rev. W. Herridge for his close attention to his work of reporting for the Christian Journal, and also to the different reporters of the daily papers for their able and courteous reports of the proceedings of the Conference.

6. That the thanks of the Conference be given to the President for the manner in which he has conducted the business.

7. That the thanks of this Conference be given to the ministers of our churches for providing homes for the Delegates.

8. That the thanks of the Conference be given to our friends in this City for their hospitality in generously, as usual, opening their homes to entertain the members of this gathering.
