FAMILY PHYSIC

THERE has long existed a public demand for flective pureative pill which could be relied on une and perfectly-safe in its operation. This is occupred to meet that demand, and an exti-ive trial of its vitues has conclusively shown we that success it accomplishes the purpose design It is easy to make a physical part, out not easy to make the best of all pills—one which should have none of the objections, but all the advantages, of every other. This has been attempted frees, and with what success we would respectfully submit to the public decision. It has been unfortunate for the patient hitherto that almost every pirmative medicine is actinonious and uritating to the bow-ole. This is not. Many of them produce so much
