THERMOMETER DROPS TO 32 BELOW.

Regina Weather:
 Maxim, Minim.
 Saturday ..... zero 14 below
 Sunday ..... 10 below 32 below
 Regina is shivering in the grip of the coldest spell yet experienced this winter. The lowest temperature was experienced Sunday morning when the mercury fell to 32 degrees below zero. A stiff wind during the day, however, had the effect of raising the temperature, and the middle of the afternoon the maximum of ten degrees below zero was reached. With sundown the mercury retracted its steps and at ten o'clock Monday night it was reported to be 24 below.
 The minimum of 32 degrees below zero was reported Sunday morning both from the Parliament buildings and from the R.N.W.M.P. barracks, it is believed to have been the coldest weather experienced in November in many years.

LITTLE UNEMPLOYMENT IN SASKATCHEWAN

Despite the advent of severe weather and the cessation of agricultural activities, there is comparatively little unemployment in Saskatchewan at present, according to figures submitted by the Saskatchewan bureau of labor for the week ending Saturday, Nov. 22.

During the week there were applications for employment from 1,270 men and women and of this number 859 found work, leaving a balance of approximately 400 unprovided for at the end of the week.

G.T.P. OFFICE BURNED TO GROUND

The Grand Trunk despatcher's office at the G.T.P. yards, North Regina, is a total loss as a result of a fire which occurred at the yards. The fire occurred outside the city limits, but the Regina fire department responded, and more than 1,200 feet of hose was laid. The loss has not been estimated.

PFEIFFER STRUCK FROM BARRISTERS' ROLL

The name of John Pfeiffer was struck from the barristers' roll of Saskatchewan by order of the judges of the Court of Appeal here. Action in the Pfeiffer case was taken about four months ago and at the last sittings of the Court of Appeals he was suspended. The Saskatchewan Bar association at this sitting of the court, asked for his name to be struck from the lists and the Court of Appeal has directed along this line.

BIG GOLD SHIPMENT

Guarded by a well armed military escort numbering a hundred, millions of dollars worth of gold bullion passed through Regina from the east to Japan last week. The valuable freight was carried in special cars by the C.P.R.

E. A. Jolly for Alderman

For the last sixteen years I have been a resident and successful businessman in this city. Having been approached by many influential citizens to stand as a candidate for the city council, I have decided after careful consideration to let my name stand as a candidate for aldermanic honors. Should the electors see fit to elect me on Monday, December 8th, I shall do my duty and serve them to the best of my ability.

I also wish to announce my policy which I intend to follow should I be elected.

"The year 1920 should be Regina's banner year. If that proves to be true, and all indications point that way, progressive men are needed in the city council. It should be the ambition of every citizen to stand as many men as possible. The housing problem must be tackled. Too much time has been wasted in talking and nothing has been done. It is time something has been done, as the city is losing hundreds if not thousands of good citizens because they cannot secure houses in which to live.

I believe, too, that the time has arrived for the extension of the water works, electric light, sewage and street car system where necessary to encourage building.

ALDERMAN JAMES GRASSICK FOR MAYOR 1920

Having been requested by a large number of citizens to offer my services as mayor for the year 1920, I have decided after careful consideration to accept the call and stand as a candidate for the mayoralty. I have served you nine years as the peoples representative in municipal business and have been able to obtain during that time a great deal of experience in municipal government, which would be of great benefit to me as mayor, should you see fit to elect me. Should I be elected to this office I will endeavor to give you the best service, as I have always tried to do in the past.

Hoping to be favored with your vote and personal support and influence on Election Day.
