BYE-LAWS.

-12:3- P At a general meeting of the Council of the Municipality of Northumberland, held at the Council Chamber, Newcastle, on Tuesday the 20th day of January, A. D., 1880:

RESOLVED, that the following Bye-Laws be made and established for the government of the said Municipality.

J. P. BURCHILL, Warden. A BYE-LAW

For the preservation of order. Be it ordained by the Municipal Council of the County of Northumberland: That any person or persons who shall obstruct any side-walk or crossing in the Towns of Chatham or Newcastle by standing or loitering thereon, or impede or deter any person or persons from passing along or upon such side-walk or crossing, shall be subject to a fine of not less than two dollars; and it shall be the duty of the Police of Chatham and Newcastle to take into custody any person or persons who shall be guilty of a breach of the foregoing provisions.

J. P. BURCHILL, Warden. A BYE-LAW

Relating to Dogs.

Be it ordained by the Municipal Council of the County of Northumberland:

1. That the owner, keeper or harbourer of any Dog or Dogs in the front lots of the Middle District of the Parish of Chatham, shall between the first days of February and May in each and every year, register his or her name in full, with the name of the streets on which they reside, or cause the same to be so registered in a Book to be kept for that purpose at the Police Office within said District, and shall place or cause to be placed opposite his or her name the number of dogs he or she owns, keeps or har-bours. And any person who shall be guilty of a breach of any of the provisions of this section, shall for every offence be liable to a penalty of $2, and on default of payment of any such fine the said dog shall be killed by order of the Magistrate imposing such fine.

2. That the Collector of Dog Tax for the said District shall procure a Book, to be paid for out of the money col-lected for Dog Taxes, and place the same in the said Police Court on or before the first day of February in each year, for the purposes of the first section. And the said Collector shall, when within his knowledge or on being informed of any person who has committed a breach of the foregoing section, prosecute such person: and the omission of such Collector to so prosecute within ten days after such knowledge or information, shall subject him to a fine lector by the Magistrate imposing the same, and the said Collector shall enter in the said book so kept in the said Police Court all such fines and penalties together with the names of the parties paying the same.

5. That all fines and penalties recorded under the foregoing sections shall be applied for Alms House purposes for the Parish of Chatham, according to section second of the Bye-Law "Relating to Dogs."

6. That this Bye-Law shall come in force on the first day of January, 1881, from and after which time any

A BYE-LAW

Relating to Booms and Boomage.

Be it ordained by the Municipal Council of the County of Northumberland:

and in lieu thereof, that the Boom Master be entitled to receive five cents on each thousand superficial feet of logs, and three cents on each ton of timber securely Boomed.

J. P. BURCHILL, Warden.

A BYE-LAW.

Be it ordained by the Municipal Council of the County of

1 That from and after the first day of May, A. D., 1881,

2. Any Bye-Law heretofore made, repugnant to or inconsistent with the foregoing section, is hereby repealed. 3. All the penalties imposed by a Bye-Law relating to the going at large of Cattle and Fowl, passed at April sittings 1876, shall apply to any violation of the foregoing section, in like cases, and all fees payable thereunder shall be demanded and recovered by the Hogreeves, Constables, and Pound Keepers, respectively, for performing their several duties under this Bye-Law.

All persons are hereby forbidden to land on Bay du Vin Island, a fins been the practice with some in the past, who live committed trespasses thereon by cutting trees and doing other damage. All such persons will hereafter be dealt with 42-cording to law.

That train, like almost every other train on the had the misfortune to break down two or three times, and the name of Tupper was very freely used in the carriages, not altogether in a complimentary sense, but one of the urchins bearing that illustrious designation was a little troublesome and annoying, and they had to take care of the child; another was making too much noise, and at a moment when the cars had broken down, or run off the track, there was a momentary lull in the noise, when a cry was heard again, another voice broke forth: "shut up you monkey and do not waken Tupper." My impression is that Tupper wants to be wakened very much, and if those emigrants from Canada had succeeded in accomplishing that task, it would have been better than congratulating ourselves upon an alleged state of facts that does not exist. We are told that we are to have the bankruptcy and currency laws re-considered, and the hon. gentleman from Halifax (Mr. Richey) tells us, also, doubtless, on special information, that there is to be an increased paper used by the Government in debate | cusations against some of the agents apmust be produced to the House.
