A DANGEROUS STREET.
People doing business on the western end of North Market street and those having occasion to use that street complain bitterly of its condition. Some time ago the city laid a substantial asphalt sidewalk on the north side well over halfway down the street. The old plank on the remainder of the street was left in a dangerous condition and is getting worse every day. There seems to be some dispute as to who should repair this street. The city and the property owners are in a fix-up over the affair, and the sidewalk is taking advantage of the dispute to rot away and fall apart.

A HORSE AND AN AGENT.
Why Munyon's Man's Horse Kicked on King Street.

Wm. Robbitts, Jr., the agent who has been booming Munyon's remedies here, has a grievance against a horse that stood still on King street this morning and kicked the front of the carriage instead of peacefully drawing the agent around to spread the gospel of Munyon among the local druggists.

The horse stood still as soon as he started to go, and in a second or two managed to get one of his feet caught over the shaft. As he hoped down the hill on three legs Mr. Robbitts turned him toward the sidewalk, upon which, as the carriage rolled, he tumbled over, he jumped. Word was sent to the stable and a man shortly appeared who was greatly astonished at the animal's behaviour.

"Why that horse," he said, "is as quiet as a lamb. Never kicked in his life. Ladies drive him almost every day."

Munyon's man was hurt at this reflection of his skill. He pulled out his wad. "See here, young man," said he, "here's a nice new ten dollar bill for you if you drive that horse down this hill."

The man grinned, straightened the horse and carriage out and confidently stepped in. Hardly had he started when up went the heels again, again the foot caught and again the team went over in the ditch. The man, smashing was omitted the first time was completed then.

The crowd put his money back in his pocket. "The matter with that horse," he said, "is that you don't give him Paw-Paw pills. Nobody who takes these medicine ever kicks."

WATER FOR PARTIDGE ISLAND.
Government's Negligence Will Delay Completion Till Next Year.

The water and sewerage department has about completed the laying of the main which is to give Partidge Island fresh water. The few inhabitants of Partidge Island, however, will probably have to wait until next summer for fresh water by this means, as the government has yet to lay its end of the main and has not yet begun the work.

It will be remembered that when the carriage of fresh water to Partidge Island was first brought up, it was agreed that the city should own and maintain the main and the government the other. The government urged the city to proceed with its share of the work, and so St. John's Municipal Council immediately began excavating. He now has about three-fourths of his work completed and will tomorrow present the main to the Carleton service. The pipe has now reached the railway crossing.

EAT APPLES.
Now that flour is so expensive the cheapest thing to eat is apples, and they certainly are down to rock bottom prices. Messrs. A. L. Goodwin have landed one car of Sharp's fancy Carleton County apples, that will be sold at a figure that will be within the reach of all. These apples are among the finest fruit grown and a big rush is expected.

MORE SEPTEMBER BRIDES.

Several Pretty Weddings in the City Today.

MCLEOD-SMITH.
At three o'clock this afternoon, in the Carleton Free Baptist church, an interesting event took place when Miss Sarah Elizabeth Smith, daughter of the late A. C. Smith, was married to Norman Phillips McLeod, of Fredericton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. McLeod, father of the groom, assisted by Rev. R. W. Ferguson, and the church was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

The bride, who was given away by her brother, H. Colby Smith, wore cream crepe de chine, with veil and orange blossoms, and was attended by Miss Ethel Fales, of St. John. The groom was supported by his brother, Harry McLeod. The ushers were Blanchard Fowler, Roy Fenwick and George Kirk.

The number of beautiful gifts testified to the esteem in which the young couple are held, among them being a rocking chair, upholstered in silk, from the infant class of the church; silver candelabra from the Sunday school; and cut glass vase from the Junior Christian Endeavour Society. The groom's present to the bride was a sunburst of pearls, and to the bride a turquoise ring, while the bride presented to the best man and each of the ushers an ornate scarf pin.

ROBERTSON-WARD.

This morning at six o'clock at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, Miss Nellie Frances Ward became the bride of James Quinton Robertson, of the I. C. R. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. W. Mesham in the presence of only the relatives and immediate friends of the contracting parties.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Elizabeth Ward, while Charles Coughlan supported the groom. The bride wore a gown of castor shade broadcloth with white broadcloth trimmings, and had on her hair a turquoise ring, while the bride presented to the best man and each of the ushers an ornate scarf pin.

ARCHIBALD-HAMM.

A pretty wedding took place this afternoon at half-past two at the bride's home on King street west, when Miss Grace Gwendolyn Hamm, daughter of the late James E. Hamm, was united in marriage to Ryland McGregor Archibald, son of P. McGregor Archibald, of Truro, N. S. The ceremony was performed by Rev. B. N. Nobles in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

The bride, who was unattended, was given in white silk voile, with veil, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald, leave by the Montreal express for a trip through upper Canada, and on their return will reside in Truro.

BURNS-MARSHALL.

At Weymouth, N. S., this morning the wedding took place of Andrew Burns, son of James Burns of this city, to Miss Hattie Marshall of Weymouth. On conclusion of a tour through Nova Scotia Mr. and Mrs. Burns will take up their residence in St. John.

REGAN-HOGAN.

The wedding took place at Calais, today of Miss Alice Hogan, of Calais, and Henry Regan, of this city. Several St. John people went to the border to be present at the ceremony.

LITTLEJOHN WANTS DAMAGES.

May Sue for False Arrest — The Boxing Game Will Boom Here Now.

Dan Littlejohn, the local boxer, who yesterday won his appeal case now wants satisfaction. He does not think it fair that he should have been locked up in jail for four days accused of something he was not guilty of.

The question is, where he is going to get redress? Chief Clark was absent from the city at the time and the case was made by Deputy Chief Jenkins and several other officers. To proceed against the police would be useless as they were acting in good faith and their judgment was borne out by the police magistrate. Littlejohn, however, is after satisfaction and it is possible his friends are going to get it for him.

The result of Judge Carleton's decision is that St. John may have several good goes in the near future. Since Littlejohn and McLeod were arrested in the rink the game has been dead and no efforts have been made to bring outsiders here. Now, however, that the courts have decided that the police were wrong and that a sporting exhibition is not a prize fight it is altogether likely that number of fast outsiders will be seen here.

Of the locals Beth McLeod is now on his way to Buenos Ayres on a vessel of which his father is captain and is consequently out of the question, but Littlejohn stands ready to meet Foley, of Halifax, or any other man in his class. Several other goes are talked of and as an exhibition of the manly art Jack Powers is trying to bring Bob Fitzsimmons here.

MORE STOLEN GOODS FOUND.

MONCTON, Sept. 13.—The police have made a further search of the premises of H. H. Leaman, the I. C. R. transfer shed clerk, and found in the cellar a lot of paints, oil, colored glass and other stuff, such as is kept in the I. C. R. stores department. Leaman previous to being sent to the transfer shed had worked in the stores department, and it is believed the thieves have been going on for three or four years, or practically all the time he has been in the service.

NEW METHODIST PASTORS.

Centenary and Queen Square Getting Ready For the Coming Shift.

The quarterly board of Centenary church was in session yesterday and adjourned until Friday next. The interesting part of the business of this meeting is the choice of a pastor for the next term, as Rev. G. M. C. Rogers, of Fredericton, is leaving for the end of his last year. Among the clergymen whose names are being considered are: Rev. Dr. Sprague, of Queen St. Methodist church; Rev. J. Rogers, of Fredericton; Rev. W. W. Lodge, of Charlottetown; and Rev. Messrs. Weddall and Hearts, of the Nova Scotia conference.

Queen Square Methodist church also held its regular quarterly meeting last night and adjourned it until the next quarter. Nothing very important was discussed, but at the next meeting the subject of a new pastor will have to be discussed, as Rev. Dr. Sprague's term is nearly up.

WHAT HALIFAX SAYS.

Halifax Herald, Sept. 6th, says: The Master Glee Singers appeared at the Empire Theatre, last night, under the auspices of the North-West Arm Rowing Club, for the first concert of their Canadian tour. The audience was large, and it is safe to say that no vocal quartette was ever heard in Halifax whose work was so finished, and whose voices blended so perfectly as did those of the Master Glee Singers, while in solo work the bass, the tenor and the baritone all gave infinite satisfaction. Excepting the opening number, a duet, which was given before the entire audience had been seated, every number was encoored, and it was felt that it would be overworking the talented singers, second responses were not insisted upon.

PASSING OF THE WINDMILL.

A striking example of the extent to which windmills have become obsolete has just been furnished at Yarmouth, where the famous high mill—the highest in England—was sold for demolition.

It cost £10,000 to build in 1812. It served as a landmark far and wide, its height being 120 feet from the ground. Circular in form, the mill contains no fewer than twelve floors. Its walls are several feet thick, and are estimated to contain hundreds of thousands of bricks.

It was sold for £100 under the hammer.
