

ary family to India, to relieve one of the missionaries who will speedily have to return to gain health.

Bro. Hutchinson, who arrived with his family at his station in Chicacole last December, has already entered upon the study, and is making rapid progress in the language of the Telugus.

In conclusion, your Committee would earnestly recommend that all the members of our churches make these missions an object of continuous prayer to God and of Christian benevolence, that they may be supported and rendered efficient and powerful in giving the heathen to Christ for his inheritance. They would also recommend that every pastor preach at least one sermon each quarter during the next Associational year on the subject of missions, giving special prominence to our foreign interests, that our people may be properly instructed as to the claims of these missions and their duties respecting them.

All of which is submitted,

T. M. MUNRO, Chairman.

On motion, it was adopted.

Fervent prayer was now offered for our missionaries on the field by Revs. J. H. Hughes, D. G. McDonald, I. J. Skinner.
