Since first ye marched wi flags unfurled,
Wi 'yer black mustache upwards curled,
Millions of men tae death ye hurled,
In yer mad campaign,
Ye "would be" Kaiser o' the World,
Yer march was vain. Ye went tae Belgian territory, And killed wee bairns and the hoary, And butchered women tae get glory For yer ain sel, Yèr pathway through that land was Ye gave them Hell.

A SCOTSMAN'S ADDRESS TO KAISER BILL.

(By Peter Mackay). Cursed be yer ugly Prussian face, Worst savage o' the human race, Soon may some missile end your pace Batth sure and sudden;

Oh, if some Scotsman's God-sped bullet,

Wad in yer black heart find its billet,
I'd laud wi' joy that Scot and pellet,
In twa 'r three verses,
I'd like tae tan yer hide and sell it,
Just like a horse's.

Incarnate fiend in human guise, Ye surely got a great surprise, When ye saw ye coldna' Kaiserize The Land o' France, Britarnia's jolt between the eyes Stopt your advance.

Twa year and mair afore yestreen, Yer plans were laid and a' foreseen Tae mass brass bands on Glasse green. green, Or Kelvinside, And yer band's first tune was to have "Wacht on the Clyde."

This Prussian programme can tae nil, But as sure's yer name is Kaiser Bill, The Hielan' pipers surely will, Play in Berlin. Or ye may hear them by God's will In St. Helene.

Oh, "Holy Willie" ower the Rhine, Dutch potentate by "Right Divine." Like Stewart Kings o' "Auld Lang Syne," Yer goose is cooked, Ah,—Kaiser Bill, last o' yer line, Yer doom is booked.

When peace will come 'twill end your casts,
End Royal rule, unjust, unchasts,
Justice will sweep ye 'oot as wasts,
You and your breed,
But ye'll be the first one to be placed
On midden held.

Complaints have been heard from both the western and eastern coast resorts of the United States that tourlists are scarcer han usual. Although the comparatively quiet period at the esatern resorts has been attributed to apprehension concerning submarine boat activities, perhaps the more likely explanation is that many people spent their vacation money in the purchase of Liberty Bonds. There has also been a genuine wave of economy throughout the land. Coupled with this is the likelelihood that many families find it more profitable to remain at home and cultivate the gardens they planted in the spring.
