It galls Capt. Jack and his fellow prisoners to see Hooker Jim and Steamboat Frank at liberty and allowed to wear their arms. Capt. Jack does not understand turning "State's evidence." Yesterday afternoon he became greatly enraged and gave vent to his anger in a fiery oration. He rose in his chains with Schonchin, and in a strong and impressive manner recited his grievances. with Schonchin, and in a strong and impressive manner recited his grievances. The purport of what he said is told by Scar-faced Charlie. "He is mad," says Charlie, "to see that the white men non treat all alike." He also complained that while in the Lava Beds a portion of his fellow captives were waning in their sympathy with him. An officer of the guard came in and compelled him to desist in his oration. There are thirteen myrderers under guard here.
