

C/Supt. C. J. Reid drops the puck between Capt. Paul Saulnier of "L" Division and Keith Morris of "J" Division to start the tournament.

CURLING CFB Halifax Curling Club hosted the Labatt's Nova Scotia Police Provincial Curling Championships between February 8 and 11, 1984.

The rink skipped by Garth Mitchell, mate Clarence Fiddler, second Frank Delorey and lead Jim Delaney won the provincial title with a 5-4 win over the rink skipped by Stu Ryder, mate Colin MacPherson, second Bill Dickie and lead Don Burgess. The Mitchell rink went on to compete in the Labatt's Canadian Championships in Winnipeg, going into the final game with Saskatchewan with a 9 and 2 record. Nova Scotia won the final game 5-4 and brought the Labatt's Trophy home for the first time in the history of the Canadian Police Curling Association.

The 1984 curling champions (L-R) Cpl. Jim Delaney, Cst. Clarence Fiddler, Cst. Garth Mitchell and Sgt. Frank Delorey.

* * *

CFB Halifax Curling Club also hosted the annual curling challenge between the Nova Scotia RCMP Veterans and the serving members. The event was won once again by the RCMP Veterans rink of Jerry O'Connell, Gus MacKenzie, Ray Powell and Charlie Bashaw. A small social following this event was held at the "H" Division Combined NCO's Mess where the trophy presentation was made by C/Supt. C. J. Reid, C.O. "H" Division.

"J" DIVISION

(Headquarters — Fredericton, N.B.)

BIRTH To Reg. No. 30908, Cst. K. F. Ball and his wife Lorna, a son, Craig, on June 6, 1983.

PIG BOWL 1983 The annual Pig Bowl game originally started as a touch-football competition between the Moncton Police and the RCMP in Moncton. Proceeds from the games are donated to the Big Brother and Big Sister associations. The Moncton business community supports this cause by donating the Pig Bowl Trophy, other trophies and individual prizes to the players.

Last year, Cpls. Mike Boudreau and Bob McFetridge of the Moncton Police Force, the