Two men were badly burned near Wallaceburg, Ont., lighting their pipes in a natural gas regulator shed.

The installation of May-Oatway Fire Alarm System in several of the large buildings in Winnipeg is completed.

Mr. William Crawford, late Captain in Toronto fire division, has entered on his new duties of Government Inspector of fire equipments.

While fighting the fire at the Canadian Westinghouse Company's factory, Hamilton, Ont., about a dozen firemen were placed hors de combat, two of them having to be taken to hospital.

Prospectors arriving in Prince Albert, Sask., report that a fierce forest fire is raging in the timber limits north of the Pas Mission, and that the blaze covers an area of about 20 miles.

The lower fire insurance rates recently granted by the Canadian Fire Underwriters' Association at Ottawa apply only to new business and renewals. Rebates will not be granted on current risks. The properties now under a three-year policy, which were paid for in advance at the higher rate, will not get a rebate, and if the policy is cancelled, and a new one under the lower rates taken out, the owners will have to pay the short rate in the former policy.
