Contracted a Heavy Cold.

It Became a Lung
Splitting Cough.

Mr. J. H. Richards, 1852 Second Ave.
East, Vancouver, B.C., writes: "Allow me to write a few lines in praise of your Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. Last fall I contracted a heavy cold which left me with a hacking cough and every time I would get a little more cold this hacking cough would become a lung splitting one.
It kept on getting worse and I kept on spending money buying different cough remedies until a friend asked me if I had ever tried Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I told him I was willing to try anything I thought would cure, and on the same day bought two bottles. Before half the first one was used my cough began to get much easier, and by the time I had used a bottle and a half my cough was gone. I am keeping the other half bottle in case it should come again, but I am sure I have a positive cure. Let me recommend Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup to all who suffer from a cough or throat irritation of any kind."

So great has been the success of this wonderful remedy, it is only natural that numerous persons have tried to imitate it

Don't be imposed upon by taking anything but "Dr. Wood's."

Put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price 25 cents.

Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

I work for myself. Now, girls, if you want a good musical man, I should like to correspond with the "Irish Colleen," or a letter from "Buttercup." I should certainly like to see this letter, dear Mr.
Editor, in the W.H.M. Hoping your paper will have heaps of success, I re-

Home, Sweet Home.

Wadena, Sask.
Sir,—As I have been an interested reader of the Western Home Monthly for nearly two years, I think it a splendid paper, and should be in every home.
I find the correspondence column very interesting, and as I have been baching for nearly three years, I thought I would fall in line with the rest, and get acquainted with some of the readers. I am a Canadian, and am 5 ft. 8 in. tall, weight 150 lbs., and have light hair and blue eyes. As far as good looks go I guess I will pass. So, girls, don't be shy, as I will not ask my wife when I get one to milk cows and do chores, unless I happen to be away. I have a section of land in Saskatchewan, and have a fine house all ready for the missus to step into. Well, I will close and not take up too much of your valuable paper.
"Happy Go Lucky."

Wishes Correspondents of Either Sex.

Macoun, Sask.
Dear Sir,—Here I am once again trying to squeeze out a small portion of your valuable space. Well, I won't bother giving a description of myself this time. Would like a few more correspondents of either sex. I will now close, wishing the W.H.M. every possible success, and will sign myself
"White Rose."

Agricola Expresses His Views.

Sask.
Sir,—I have been an interested reader of your magazine for some time and I enjoy it very much. I consider it one of the leading magazines of the day. I enjoy reading "The Young Man Problem." The stories are good, but the temperance talks do not come often enough, especially from our lady correspondents. Why do young men smoke, drink and gamble?
First, because some companion has treated them some time and assured them that it would not hurt; sure, the first one seldom does, but you generally cultivate a taste, then look out for the harm after.
Second, because they lack the courage and self-will to say "no." Banish the treating system and the bar will soon go.
Third, because the young ladies of today (generally speaking) rather admire the jolly, sporty young man, and don't object to his smoking a cigar and gambling a little while in their company.
The young men are just what the young ladies make them. If the ladies would raise the standard of manhood to a level with the standard of womanhood and stick to it, they would do a greater and mightier good than going to the polls to vote. I liked the letters written by "Modesty's Purest Gem" and the "Bear." They express my sentiments exactly.
Wherefore describe oneself? Even photos flatter sometimes. Well, here I am a farmer, with an agricultural education, am old enough to vote, fair blue eyes, 5 ft. 11 in., weigh 185 lbs., temperate in everything. Enjoy all good clean sport.
My favorite enjoyment is travelling, and when means and a suitable travelling companion become my own I expect to indulge. I would enjoy a letter from any young lady who cares to write, especially "Pa's Daughter," of Moose Jaw, and "Margaret," of Winnipeg. It's really a young man's place to write first, but I am a very busy fellow and I may not write to some that would wish it, so will show the ladies no preference at present. I will close, trusting that I haven't taken up too much of your space.
Thanking you in advance, and wishing you every success with the W.H.M., I will sign myself
"Agricola."

Attention! Scotchmen.

Blairgowrie, Scotland.
Dear Sir,—I have just read the correspondence column of your interesting paper, which I get from a friend. I should so like to exchange letters with any of your correspondents. I want to know all about Canada, as I intend coming out to Winnipeg or Toronto to start a dressmaking business. I am Scotch, as you will see by above address, and am quite proud of the fact that one of my ancestors fought for the freedom of Canada. I suppose I ought to describe myself. Well, to begin with, I don't know what height I am as I have never had time to be measured. My weight is 112 lbs., black hair, hazel eyes, good complexion, aged 24 years. I have no accomplishments to speak of, unless that I can work very hard, and I consider myself a first-class dressmaker—at least, my customers say so—and may add that I am very fond of books—and frocks. I should be so pleased if any of your city readers would find time to write me regarding dressmaking in Canada. I have a splendid business here, but two of my brothers are going out West, and as both my parents are dead, we (my sister and I) see no reason why we should not come out too. I shall sign myself
"Perthshire Lassie."

A Handy B.C. Lassie.

Sir,—I have been an interested reader of your much valued paper for a year, but have never before found courage to write to the correspondence column. I am a farmer's daughter, 5 ft. 5 in. tall, dark brown hair and blue eyes, and weigh 121 lbs. I am a good housekeeper and a good cook, and can do outside chores in a pinch. I feel sorry for some of the poor bachelors who write such lonesome letters, and would like to correspond with "Laughing Joe," of July number, and also "Australian Brown," of Sept. number, if they will write first. I am not on the matrimonial list, but would gladly answer any letters. I will close wishing the W.H.M. the very best of success. I will sign myself "A Daisy."

Don't all Speak at Once, Girls.

Southern Alberta.
Sir,—Have been a subscriber for over a year to the W.H.M., and always found it a very interesting paper in every particular, especially the correspondence column. I would have written sooner, only I am a little backward in coming forward. Anyway, I have put it off until now, but will make a brave attempt for once. I am one of those despised old bachelors who hear so much about, and I live on a farm near the foot-hills of the Rockies, in Sunny Alberta, and I like it very well. I came to Manitoba from Old Ontario, and lived there for some time, and from there to here, but think I like this country a little the best as one can always take a good view of the mountains and the foot-hills. The country here is very rolling and the view is always changing, so that a person does not tire of it as quickly as one does of the bleak prairie. Well, I will not attempt too long a letter this time, but will say that I enjoy reading the most of the boys' and girls' letters, but some I do not care for, as some of the men seem to want a wife and hired woman all in one.
I think this kind had better inquire at an employment agency, and some of the ladies want a man who has not any faults, which no doubt would be very nice, but, methinks, they would be hard to find. As for myself, I have a good many faults, and bad ones too, but I think I have a few good ones, only they are hard to find sometimes. I do not think I should describe myself, especially my looks, as my own mother found that required some nerve, but will say that I am under thirty; and if I ever happen to get the better half I would like to consider her as my dearest companion, and treat her as such as far as it lay in my power to do so. I do not like to see a man treat his wife as a money-making machine nor yet as a doll, but each to help the other, so as to have a happy home.

I should be pleased to hear from any one who cares to write, and will gladly answer all letters.

Wishing your paper every success, Bunchgrass.

The Quickest, Simplest Cough Cure

Easily and Cheaply Made at Home. Saves You $2.

This recipe makes 16 ounces of cough syrup—enough to last a family a long time. You couldn't buy as much or as good cough syrup for $2.50.

Simple as it is, it gives almost instant relief and usually stops the most obstinate cough in 24 hours. This is partly due to the fact that it is slightly laxative, stimulates the appetite and has an excellent tonic effect. It is pleasant to take—children like it. An excellent remedy, too, for whooping cough, sore lungs, asthma, throat troubles, etc.

Mix 2 cups of granulated sugar with one cup of warm water and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2j ounces of Pinex (50 cents' worth) in a 16 oz. bottle and add the Sugar Syrup. It keeps perfectly. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

Pinex is one of the oldest and best known remedial agents for the throat membranes. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in guaiacol and all the other natural healing elements. Other preparations will not work in this formula.

The prompt results from this recipe have endeared it to thousands of housewives in the United States and Canada, which explains why the plan has been imitated often, but never successfully.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Pour druggist has Pinex or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.
