
ARE YOU ON THE LIST OF ELECTORS?

You can still vote, even if your name is not yet on the 1982 List of Electors.

The Election Revision period, provided between October 12 and October 23, 1982 for electors to add their names to Lists of Electors, has now concluded.

Electors whose names are not included on a List of Electors may vote on polling day provided that they take the Oath of Elector and that they provide the Deputy Returning Officer with proof of the address of their residence in that polling subdivision, such as:

- Alberta Health Insurance Card
- Alberta Driver's License
- Motor Association Membership Card
- Alberta Senior Citizen Card
- Residence Rental, Lease or Purchase Agreement or Receipt
- Current Month's Utilities Bill or Similar Identification
- Students living on campus — copy of contract with Housing and Food Services

KENNETH A. WARK
ALBERTA CHIEF ELECTORAL OFFICER
