CANADA WORLD YOUTH is now recruiting Canadians and landed immigrants between the ages of 17 and 20 (as of December 31, 1989) for exchange programmes with developing countries in Africa, Asia, Latin America and the Caribbean.

If you are working, studying, or looking for a job and interested in participating in a challenging international development programme, apply now. You'll spend seven months with other young people from across Canada and from the exchange country, doing volunteer work in community development, agriculture, or social services. You will gain knowledge and skills that will help you in future academic or professional careers.

All expenses are covered by CANADA WORLD YOUTH during the programme, but you will have to make a commitment in the form of time, energy and flexibility. It is not an easy experience, but one that will last a lifetime.

Exchanges start as early as July 1990.
The final deadline for applications is January 31, 1990.
