

Wednesday June 29th Evening. Moonside upstairs. Joan present.

During this evening quite a number of names appeared - the name Ellen or Helen, the name James, and William, all three were sons of grandfather's children. The first I think was my aunt Helen (whose niece I have - James was the pretty little whom I spoke before and William was the one who fought at the battle was, with ten words against the South & also was engaged to Maria Wadsworth, as I recollect.
The name 'Maria' came associated with him, and I had seen a letter from her later - the name 'Rachel' appeared after William but I could recall no one of that name in the Knickerbocker family or association. ^{10 years ago} ~~The name~~ ^{the person} ~~who was a sister~~ ~~of John Wadsworth Johnson (the clerical man)~~

When the Gibson - some one of the names When the Gibson came best we could catch fit for in conversation. He spoke of being a friend of father's, said it was with J^r. Gibson of Hamilton the Ex. Secy Governor, but seemed to indicate it was the brother of "Gibson of Toronto" (Memora Gibson - the President) also was a great friend of father's. Joan was pulling at her beads while we were trying to get the name after driving about some the pebbles on the floor, so we had to stop until all were gathered together - then all was darkness once more, there were further names and signs. A blue bowl with of yellow (china) with a silver rim around it, kept appearing but we could think of no association with anything of the kind. Then came a name that looked like 'Josephine'; we could think of no one of that name but since I have concluded it was 'Josephine' or 'Josephine' appeared, which was a daughter of my cousin, brother Josephine, appeared, which was a daughter of my cousin, appeared, which was a daughter of my cousin, appeared, which was a daughter of my cousin,
