h a covered of a shanty, ve a rapid. it by rock river-drivers g and skill oids. They rope-dancer. the drive. of a jam. obstruction. or at the it the logs e dams are at pressure which the ad and in m. Somefrequently rations, not f a stream little snow, e of water d "slides." h smooth, which the tended to, he "slideent on the ion width, feet wide; consists of led "travpieces of e for the ently the

rts of the by dashing

THE ROLLWAY.

Ottawa river-drivers take tourists or others as passengers, to give them the sensation of "shooting a slide." We embark on board a crib above the slide-gates at the falls of the Calumet. The raftsmen bid us take firm hold of one of the strong poles which are driven between the lower timbers of the crib. Above the slide the waters of