

St. Ann's Academy

New Westminster, B.C.

THIS Institution, founded in 1865, is conducted by the Sisters of St. Ann, an order devoted in an especial manner to the education of girls. It is pleasantly situated on an eminence commanding an extensive and beautiful view, and receiving the full benefit of the pure air from the Fraser River. The location is remarkably healthy.

The discipline is mild, but firm, uniting a careful training of manners and character with the best intellectual and physical development. Weekly instructions are given in the rules of etiquette and all that constitutes correct, lady-like deportment.
