Mount St. Louis Literary Union.

The closing meeting of the Union was held in the College hall on the 9th instant. A very interesting programme was gone through. Rev. Father McCrory, of St. Michael's College, presided. Among those present were Rev. J. Broseau, chaplain of the college; Rev. Brother Symphonium, director of the college; Rev. Bro. Rhagnus, purveyor of the college; Messrs. Ford, Homes, M. Gauthier, A. O'Neill, of Montreal and Messrs. Fontaine, Marcotte and Williams from the United States.

Mr. R. King read a very carefully worded essay entitled "A Lazy Student Reproached by His Books." It was severely criticized by Mr. F. O'Leary. The cornet solo of Mr. E. Desaulniers showed much taste and talent on his part.

The citizens' meeting proved to be the most interesting item on the programme. The meeting was called to discuss the question: "Should the Montreal Street Railway system be extended so as to take in Mount Royal Park?" Messrs. O'Callaghan and Doucet brought out strong arguments in favor of the question, while Messrs. Hamill and Delahanty held opposite opinions and handled the question so well that when the vote was taken they had a majority of 12. Mr. D. Jackson presided at the meeting. He proved equal to the task, though at times he was seemingly embarrassed as to how to handle such a restless and noisy assembly.

The clarinet solo by Mr. J. Casey was excellent. He received well deserved encores.

Mr. H. McD. G. Bellow acted well his part as president of the Union. The Union is indebted to him for the interest he has taken in its welfare. In the course of his short address he thanked Father McCrory, an old pupil of the college, for so kindly presiding and also the many kind friends who by their presence testified to the esteem in which they held Mount St. Louis College.

Everyone regretted the absence of Mr. Jas. Hughes, the worthy vice-president.

Mr. H. Doucet's essay was a work of great merit. It is to be hoped that Mr. Doucet will continue his series of essays, which have proved so interesting during the past year.

Mr. Jos. Kavanagh read a poem entitled Spring in splendid style. Messrs. Doyle and Emerson gave two very well chosen declamations.

Cucumbers and melons are "forbidden fruit" to many persons so constituted that the least indulgence is followed by attacks of cholera, dysentery, griping, etc. These persons are not aware that they can indulge to their heart's content if they have on hand a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial, a medicine that will give immediate relief, and is a sure cure for all summer complaints.

Venerable Sister Theresa.

Celebrates Diamond Jubilee.

Ottawa, June 10. — The diamond jubilee of Sister Theresa, superior of the Rideau street convent, who has been sixty years a nun, was made the occasion of a unique demonstration this evening, when a great gathering of Ottawans, regardless of creed, presented the venerable lady with a purse containing $3200, accompanied by an address.

Miss Martha O'Hagan (Sister Theresa) was a girl in her early teens when a little company of Grey Nuns arrived from Montreal in 1845 to open a branch of their order at Bytown. She was the first English-speaking novice to apply for admission, and, being admirably qualified by her natural gifts, sound education and a fine presence to further the interests of the order, she was gladly received and at the end of two years permitted to take her first vows of poverty, chastity and obedience.

In 1849 the young nun had already won the esteem and confidence of her superiors to such a remarkable extent that she was placed in charge of the new institute for young ladies. The wisdom of this choice has been abundantly demonstrated by the fact that to-day, after a lapse of sixty years, Sister Theresa, apparently as full of vim and vigor as ever, is still actively directing the affairs of the large establishment which has grown out of the infant school of 1849, and which, in a peculiarly literal sense, may be described as the splendid fruit of her own individual efforts.

Lepers and Leprosy.

There are many men who would gladly go through fire and water to save a fellow-creature, and men who, in the heat of battle, have performed deeds of desperate daring, but such acts, brave though they be, pale into insignificance when compared with the calm courage displayed by Father L. L. Conrady, the greatest friend possessed by the lepers of the world.

"The main object of my mission," said Father Conrady, "is not to expend money in endeavoring to cure lepers, because that is an impossibility. What I strive to do is to get them set apart from other persons. The Chinese Government does nothing for the poor leprosy wretches of Canton, who are allowed to wander about at their own sweet will, thereby disseminating the disease at an alarming rate. There are in the Province of Canton at present over 30,000 lepers and 10,000 in the town of Canton alone."

The Reverend Father will lecture at Kern Hall, No. 468 St. Catherine street, west, on Thursday, the 18th instant, at 8.15 p.m.

Subject: "The Lepers of Molokai and Canton, China." Admission, 25c.

ENFORCE THE LAW.

To the Editor True Witness:

Sir,—It is time that something should be done to put a stop to the awful practice of using profane language which certain individuals who congregate at lacrosse matches and ball games are in the habit of doing, to the disgust of respectable people and the detriment of the young.

Is it to be wondered at that language is heard from the mouths of lads not over fifteen years of age that would bring the blush of shame to the cheek of any man with a particle of self-respect in his makeup, when hardened old villains with the whiskey bottle in their coat pocket from which they quench the thirst caused by the very demon in his effort to bring destruction to the souls of all with whom these human monsters come in contact, are allowed free scope to give vent to the vile corruption of their corrupt hearts. Our young boys are being poisoned daily by this awful curse found on all sides, but more especially at the ball game and the lacrosse match, where these scoundrels congregate and blaspheme the Holy Name with impunity.

Why is this state of affairs allowed to continue? Have the directors of our athletic organizations no regard for the morality of the young or respect for the old, that they allow such conduct on their grounds to go unpunished? Are police so scarce that there are not enough to patrol the stands at lacrosse matches and other such gatherings, not as ornaments, but as representatives of law and order who will be ready to make a few examples in their endeavor to put a stop to a filthy habit. Respectable men, when in future you see the whiskey bottle being passed around and hear the vile language uttered by the wretch who gloats in his villainess, notify at once the club authorities and if they fail to take action leave the grounds as a protest, and publish the incident, that those guilty of neglect of duty may receive the just condemnation which their negligence deserves.

The directors of lacrosse matches and ball games owe it to the respectable people who patronize them that they will see to it that nothing will be allowed at their respective grounds to wound the feelings of decent people.

THE SHAMPOCK LACROSSE CLUB.

Editor True Witness: Sir,—In your last issue I notice a little well-deserved praise for our worthy Montreal Shamrocks. All power to you! I most highly congratulate you on giving them the compliments which they certainly deserve. No paper really seems to stick up for our dear Shamrocks and for this reason your article of the 6th inst. has caused all the more joy to all Irish hearts.

In your tenth "Notes of the Game" you make a statement which will, I hope, be thought over by our antagonistic friends. The Shamrocks have always been remarked for their clean play. Of course they are pardonable should they sometimes, through excitement, forget themselves. Hoping you will continue to encourage them.

I remain,

Do not delay in getting relief for the little folks. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator is a pleasant and sure cure. If you love your child why do you let it suffer when a remedy is so near at hand?
