

Methodists have no place of their own where they may bury their dead...

W. T. CARRY. Hamilton, Bermuda, Jan. 25th.

WILLIAM CHAPMAN, Esq., son of the oldest sister of the late Rev. Wm. Black...

In his juvenile years he was the subject of divine influences, but it was not until some considerable time after he was married...

It is worthy of special notice that immediately on his determining, by the grace of the Lord Jesus, to "strive to enter in at the strait gate," he set up his "family altar," and the very first time that he and his partner and their children surrounded it...

More than thirty years ago I found the late Brother, who was my guide the first time I visited the old Pedagogic Circuit...

Had he lived until the coming March he would have attained the age of 73 years...

He was for many years Circuit Steward, Class Leader, Trustee, and Local Preacher, in the Wesleyan Church.

W. T.

Died at Kempf, in this county, on the 13th of May last, DAVID SKALING, who was for a great number of years a steady member of the Wesleyan Church...

As I was intimately acquainted with our late Brother for several years, I have been requested to draw up a short account of him for your excellent paper...

In the winter of 1841 the Lord was pleased to pour out His Spirit upon our congregation at Kempf, which resulted in the most extensive revival of religion which had ever taken place in that part of the country...

At a subsequent appointment to the Newport Circuit, I had the happiness to find that our late friend was pursuing the "good old way" with diligence and delight...

At a subsequent appointment to the Newport Circuit, I had the happiness to find that our late friend was pursuing the "good old way" with diligence and delight...

I could say much more on the subject of his estimable character, but I do not deem it necessary to do so under present circumstances...

W. M. CROSCOBIE. Windsor, Feb. 4.

Provincial Wesleyan

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1858.

Communications designed for this paper must be accompanied by the name of the writer in confidence. We do not undertake to return rejected articles. We do not assume responsibility for the opinions of correspondents.

There are three points on the Continent of Europe that just now attract a degree of attention not due to their relative importance in that assemblage of states...

Methodists are not, however, the first to secure the regard of the student of current events, but each of them now takes precedence in his mind of larger and more potent kingdoms because of their soil and in their senates great battles of civil and religious liberty are waged and warred...

Methodists are not, however, the first to secure the regard of the student of current events, but each of them now takes precedence in his mind of larger and more potent kingdoms because of their soil and in their senates great battles of civil and religious liberty are waged and warred...

Methodists are not, however, the first to secure the regard of the student of current events, but each of them now takes precedence in his mind of larger and more potent kingdoms because of their soil and in their senates great battles of civil and religious liberty are waged and warred...

Methodists are not, however, the first to secure the regard of the student of current events, but each of them now takes precedence in his mind of larger and more potent kingdoms because of their soil and in their senates great battles of civil and religious liberty are waged and warred...

We exult, as all true Protestants throughout the world will exult, in the noble success which the anti-clerical party in Belgium have achieved...

October last we called attention to the state of affairs in that kingdom. The clerical party had then carried in the Chamber of Representatives their nefarious measure for accumulating in the hands of the priesthood the property of the country...

It is worthy of special notice that immediately on his determining, by the grace of the Lord Jesus, to "strive to enter in at the strait gate," he set up his "family altar," and the very first time that he and his partner and their children surrounded it...

More than thirty years ago I found the late Brother, who was my guide the first time I visited the old Pedagogic Circuit...

Had he lived until the coming March he would have attained the age of 73 years...

He was for many years Circuit Steward, Class Leader, Trustee, and Local Preacher, in the Wesleyan Church.

Died at Kempf, in this county, on the 13th of May last, DAVID SKALING, who was for a great number of years a steady member of the Wesleyan Church...

As I was intimately acquainted with our late Brother for several years, I have been requested to draw up a short account of him for your excellent paper...

In the winter of 1841 the Lord was pleased to pour out His Spirit upon our congregation at Kempf, which resulted in the most extensive revival of religion which had ever taken place in that part of the country...

At a subsequent appointment to the Newport Circuit, I had the happiness to find that our late friend was pursuing the "good old way" with diligence and delight...

At a subsequent appointment to the Newport Circuit, I had the happiness to find that our late friend was pursuing the "good old way" with diligence and delight...

I could say much more on the subject of his estimable character, but I do not deem it necessary to do so under present circumstances...

W. M. CROSCOBIE. Windsor, Feb. 4.

There are three points on the Continent of Europe that just now attract a degree of attention not due to their relative importance in that assemblage of states...

Methodists are not, however, the first to secure the regard of the student of current events, but each of them now takes precedence in his mind of larger and more potent kingdoms because of their soil and in their senates great battles of civil and religious liberty are waged and warred...

Methodists are not, however, the first to secure the regard of the student of current events, but each of them now takes precedence in his mind of larger and more potent kingdoms because of their soil and in their senates great battles of civil and religious liberty are waged and warred...

Methodists are not, however, the first to secure the regard of the student of current events, but each of them now takes precedence in his mind of larger and more potent kingdoms because of their soil and in their senates great battles of civil and religious liberty are waged and warred...

Methodists are not, however, the first to secure the regard of the student of current events, but each of them now takes precedence in his mind of larger and more potent kingdoms because of their soil and in their senates great battles of civil and religious liberty are waged and warred...

Methodists have no place of their own where they may bury their dead...

W. T. CARRY. Hamilton, Bermuda, Jan. 25th.

WILLIAM CHAPMAN, Esq., son of the oldest sister of the late Rev. Wm. Black...

In his juvenile years he was the subject of divine influences, but it was not until some considerable time after he was married...

It is worthy of special notice that immediately on his determining, by the grace of the Lord Jesus, to "strive to enter in at the strait gate," he set up his "family altar," and the very first time that he and his partner and their children surrounded it...

More than thirty years ago I found the late Brother, who was my guide the first time I visited the old Pedagogic Circuit...

Had he lived until the coming March he would have attained the age of 73 years...

He was for many years Circuit Steward, Class Leader, Trustee, and Local Preacher, in the Wesleyan Church.

W. T.

Died at Kempf, in this county, on the 13th of May last, DAVID SKALING, who was for a great number of years a steady member of the Wesleyan Church...

As I was intimately acquainted with our late Brother for several years, I have been requested to draw up a short account of him for your excellent paper...

In the winter of 1841 the Lord was pleased to pour out His Spirit upon our congregation at Kempf, which resulted in the most extensive revival of religion which had ever taken place in that part of the country...

At a subsequent appointment to the Newport Circuit, I had the happiness to find that our late friend was pursuing the "good old way" with diligence and delight...

At a subsequent appointment to the Newport Circuit, I had the happiness to find that our late friend was pursuing the "good old way" with diligence and delight...

I could say much more on the subject of his estimable character, but I do not deem it necessary to do so under present circumstances...

W. M. CROSCOBIE. Windsor, Feb. 4.

Provincial Wesleyan

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1858.

Communications designed for this paper must be accompanied by the name of the writer in confidence. We do not undertake to return rejected articles. We do not assume responsibility for the opinions of correspondents.

There are three points on the Continent of Europe that just now attract a degree of attention not due to their relative importance in that assemblage of states...

Methodists are not, however, the first to secure the regard of the student of current events, but each of them now takes precedence in his mind of larger and more potent kingdoms because of their soil and in their senates great battles of civil and religious liberty are waged and warred...

Methodists are not, however, the first to secure the regard of the student of current events, but each of them now takes precedence in his mind of larger and more potent kingdoms because of their soil and in their senates great battles of civil and religious liberty are waged and warred...

Methodists are not, however, the first to secure the regard of the student of current events, but each of them now takes precedence in his mind of larger and more potent kingdoms because of their soil and in their senates great battles of civil and religious liberty are waged and warred...

Methodists are not, however, the first to secure the regard of the student of current events, but each of them now takes precedence in his mind of larger and more potent kingdoms because of their soil and in their senates great battles of civil and religious liberty are waged and warred...

Corwallis Circuit.

(FROM THE REV. J. LATHAM.)

"Methodism," said the great Scottish orator, "is Christianity in earnest." And certainly, though Wesleyan Methodism may boast some things of its ecclesiastical structure, its systematic organization, its various auxiliary agencies...

We have reason to think that such a course is being taken to witness the long feeling manifested, but more encouraging still were the tokens of Divine favour—the sacred unities—the gift of power—the heavenly influence which attended the ministrations of the word, and the administration of the ordinances...

We trust that this Temple will long remain a centre of light and truth—a birth-place of souls. That whoever may there stand as ambassadors for Christ; whether they be of the tribe of Issachar or the tribe of Judah; whether they stand the rain's bow, or the sun's trumpet, whether they be Boanerges or Barabarae...

A monument of the Christian enterprise and persevering zeal of our people in the western part of the Circuit, in the Church recently erected in Berwick, and which, on Sabbath last, was dedicated to the public worship of Almighty God...

The statements are, however, but a faint outline of the work which has been done. The work was not confined to the Berwick circuit, but extended to other parts of the Circuit...

Corwallis West, Feb. 2nd.

Revival at Fredericton.

(FROM REV. J. BROWNE.)

God is graciously reviving His work in Fredericton. Upwards of 100 souls have been brought to God. For a long time our congregation has manifested deep seriousness...

Having while in England no personal acquaintance with the Baptists, but familiar with the names of some of their princely and noble spirit missionaries, my esteem and veneration for the Baptist denomination was very profound...

The new Church has been built at the expense of £1200, and the sale of the pews, in addition to the subscriptions, will leave it free from debt, or nearly so...

The opening services were of a very interesting character, and were attended by crowded congregations. To some "that Sabbath was a high day." After months of anxiety and toil, their efforts were crowned with more than anticipated success...

The opening service was preached in the morning by the Rev. Mr. Hester. It was a beautiful and appropriate exposition of the 121st verse of the xxxix. Psalm. Our Brother, who has been preaching almost night and day in the midst of a glorious revival influence...

After the first service the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered. It was a time from the presence of the Lord, a season of sacred, secret, and hallowed communion. In the afternoon a sermon was preached from 2 Chron. vi. 41, 42: "Now, my God, let I beseech thee, thine eyes be open, and let thine ears be attentive to the prayer that is made in this place..."

Rev. Mr. Angwin from Aylesford, preached in the evening, and closed the services of the day by a sermon which was listened to with the most rapt attention, and which evidently produced a profound impression upon the minds of the people...

Rev. Mr. Angwin from Aylesford, preached in the evening, and closed the services of the day by a sermon which was listened to with the most rapt attention, and which evidently produced a profound impression upon the minds of the people...

Rev. Mr. Angwin from Aylesford, preached in the evening, and closed the services of the day by a sermon which was listened to with the most rapt attention, and which evidently produced a profound impression upon the minds of the people...

Rev. Mr. Angwin from Aylesford, preached in the evening, and closed the services of the day by a sermon which was listened to with the most rapt attention, and which evidently produced a profound impression upon the minds of the people...

Rev. Mr. Angwin from Aylesford, preached in the evening, and closed the services of the day by a sermon which was listened to with the most rapt attention, and which evidently produced a profound impression upon the minds of the people...

Rev. Mr. Angwin from Aylesford, preached in the evening, and closed the services of the day by a sermon which was listened to with the most rapt attention, and which evidently produced a profound impression upon the minds of the people...

result shows that the hopes were not groundless. The articles offered for sale were such as would have been of great value in those parts of the world. We had recourse both at St. George's and at Hamilton to a means that I never saw used elsewhere...

These efforts they mean to continue a few years longer, and the debt will be discharged. If this were the case much more than is now raised would be given towards the Missionary and other similar causes. I trust the Methodist public will be wiser in future, and not incur such enormous debts in building places of religious worship...

The statements are, however, but a faint outline of the work which has been done. The work was not confined to the Berwick circuit, but extended to other parts of the Circuit...

Revival at Fredericton. (FROM REV. J. BROWNE.) God is graciously reviving His work in Fredericton. Upwards of 100 souls have been brought to God...

Having while in England no personal acquaintance with the Baptists, but familiar with the names of some of their princely and noble spirit missionaries, my esteem and veneration for the Baptist denomination was very profound...

The new Church has been built at the expense of £1200, and the sale of the pews, in addition to the subscriptions, will leave it free from debt, or nearly so...

The opening services were of a very interesting character, and were attended by crowded congregations. To some "that Sabbath was a high day." After months of anxiety and toil, their efforts were crowned with more than anticipated success...

The opening service was preached in the morning by the Rev. Mr. Hester. It was a beautiful and appropriate exposition of the 121st verse of the xxxix. Psalm. Our Brother, who has been preaching almost night and day in the midst of a glorious revival influence...

After the first service the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered. It was a time from the presence of the Lord, a season of sacred, secret, and hallowed communion. In the afternoon a sermon was preached from 2 Chron. vi. 41, 42: "Now, my God, let I beseech thee, thine eyes be open, and let thine ears be attentive to the prayer that is made in this place..."

Rev. Mr. Angwin from Aylesford, preached in the evening, and closed the services of the day by a sermon which was listened to with the most rapt attention, and which evidently produced a profound impression upon the minds of the people...

Rev. Mr. Angwin from Aylesford, preached in the evening, and closed the services of the day by a sermon which was listened to with the most rapt attention, and which evidently produced a profound impression upon the minds of the people...

Rev. Mr. Angwin from Aylesford, preached in the evening, and closed the services of the day by a sermon which was listened to with the most rapt attention, and which evidently produced a profound impression upon the minds of the people...

Rev. Mr. Angwin from Aylesford, preached in the evening, and closed the services of the day by a sermon which was listened to with the most rapt attention, and which evidently produced a profound impression upon the minds of the people...

Rev. Mr. Angwin from Aylesford, preached in the evening, and closed the services of the day by a sermon which was listened to with the most rapt attention, and which evidently produced a profound impression upon the minds of the people...

Rev. Mr. Angwin from Aylesford, preached in the evening, and closed the services of the day by a sermon which was listened to with the most rapt attention, and which evidently produced a profound impression upon the minds of the people...

Rev. Mr. Angwin from Aylesford, preached in the evening, and closed the services of the day by a sermon which was listened to with the most rapt attention, and which evidently produced a profound impression upon the minds of the people...

Rev. Mr. Angwin from Aylesford, preached in the evening, and closed the services of the day by a sermon which was listened to with the most rapt attention, and which evidently produced a profound impression upon the minds of the people...

Rev. Mr. Angwin from Aylesford, preached in the evening, and closed the services of the day by a sermon which was listened to with the most rapt attention, and which evidently produced a profound impression upon the minds of the people...

Parliamentary Intelligence.

From the Morning Papers.

House of Assembly.

FEBRUARY 11, 1858.

The third Session of the first Parliament of the Province of Nova Scotia was this day opened with the usual formality. At half past two o'clock His Excellency Sir J. Gaspard Le Marchant and Mr. John H. Bell, M. P., of the Volunteer Artillery (Commandant of the 1st Battalion) were seated on the dais in the Chamber of the House of Assembly...

Upon being commanded, the members of the Chamber attended His Excellency at the Court of Chivalry, where His Excellency was pleased to deliver the following address:

Mr. President, and Honourable Members of the Legislative Council, I have the honor to acknowledge the presence of your Excellency and of the members of the House of Assembly, and to thank you for the honor which you have done me by your presence at this important occasion...

Her Majesty having been graciously pleased to remove me to another sphere, and to appoint you to the office of Governor, I have the honor to thank you for the honor which you have done me by your presence at this important occasion...

The history of the age will be forever marked by the unparalleled atrocities of the mutiny in India, and the havoc of all classes of British residents, native and alien, who were gallantly and bravely defended by the British Army, and the blessing of Almighty God, we have every reason to hope that the people of this Province must be exceedingly gratified to find conspicuous among the many who have highly distinguished themselves one of their own countrymen...

You will learn with pleasure that the Railway Bill has been advanced, that some make additional to the trunk line, and open for traffic, and that the line to Windsor will be ready at an early day...

During the recess the attention of my Government has been directed to a consideration of the great enterprise of an Inter-Colonial Line. The papers relating thereto will be laid before you for your information...

The alteration made in the Tariff at your last Session, has enabled me to meet the large additional demands for interest on the railway bonds; yet the disturbed condition of trade which has unhappily prevailed throughout the commercial world, will naturally tend to diminish our resources for the current year; and the increasing burdens connected with our public works render it imperative for the honor and interest of the Country, that you should exercise great caution and economy in making your annual appropriations...

I deeply deplore the distress that the failure of an important branch of the Fisheries has caused to a portion of the hardy Colonial Line-fishing fishermen on our coast; yet from the bounty which has been granted to the fishery, and the bounty which has been granted to the fishery, and the bounty which has been granted to the fishery...

Your increased liberality in providing for Common School Education, has I am happy to say, given a wide impulse to that essential element in the welfare of the people, and by an unprecedented increase in the number of Teachers, and in the efforts made by the inhabitants in many districts for their support...

Reports from the Commissioners charged with the examination of the Public Works, and Accounts of the Expenditure connected therewith, are in course of preparation, and will be laid on the Table at an early day...

The Public Accounts, together with the Estimates for the current year, will shortly be placed before you...

A measure will be submitted for your consideration having in view an alteration in the constitution of the Legislative Council, by which the Elective principle may be brought into operation...

Your deliberation will also be invited to other important subjects by which it is hoped the prosperity of the Province may be promoted. You will require to make increased provision for the completion of that portion of the Hospital for the Insane, now erected, to prepare it for occupation...

The heavy liabilities connected with the indispensable progress of our public works, and the inadequacy of the sum voted for the St. Peter's Canal, as exhibited by the report of the Engineer, have compelled me reluctantly to suspend further expenditure on that service until the whole question shall be reviewed by the Legislature, when, I do not, but I will obtain the attention of your Excellency...

During the six years which I have had the honor and the happiness of presiding over the public councils of this colony, I have endeavored to direct my administration by principles, and to regulate it so as to be adapted to the necessities of the Colony, and to advance the welfare of the people...

The hon. the Speaker announced that during the recess he had received the resignation of Mr. Wm. and Stephen Thorne, Esq., of their seats as members of the House...

The hon. the Provincial Secretary laid upon the table the returns of the writs for the Township of Granville...

Parliamentary Intelligence.

From the Morning Papers.

House of Assembly.

FEBRUARY 11, 1858.

The third Session of the first Parliament of the Province of Nova Scotia was this day opened with the usual formality. At half past two o'clock His Excellency Sir J. Gaspard Le Marchant and Mr. John H. Bell, M. P., of the Volunteer Artillery (Commandant of the 1st Battalion) were seated on the dais in the Chamber of the House of Assembly...

Upon being commanded, the members of the Chamber attended His Excellency at the Court of Chivalry, where His Excellency was pleased to deliver the following address:

Mr. President, and Honourable Members of the Legislative Council, I have the honor to acknowledge the presence of your Excellency and of the members of the House of Assembly, and to thank you for the honor which you have done me by your presence at this important occasion...

Her Majesty having been graciously pleased to remove me to another sphere, and to appoint you to the office of Governor, I have the honor to thank you for the honor which you have done me by your presence at this important occasion...

The history of the age will be forever marked by the unparalleled atrocities of the mutiny in India, and the havoc of all classes of British residents, native and alien, who were gallantly and bravely defended by the British Army, and the blessing of Almighty God, we have every reason to hope that the people of this Province must be exceedingly gratified to find conspicuous among the many who have highly distinguished themselves one of their own countrymen...

You will learn with pleasure that the Railway Bill has been advanced, that some make additional to the trunk line, and open for traffic, and that the line to Windsor will be ready at an early day...

During the recess the attention of my Government has been directed to a consideration of the great enterprise of an Inter-Colonial Line. The papers relating thereto will be laid before you for your information...

The alteration made in the Tariff at your last Session, has enabled me to meet the large additional demands for interest on the railway bonds; yet the disturbed condition of trade which has unhappily prevailed throughout the commercial world, will naturally tend to diminish our resources for the current year; and the increasing burdens connected with our public works render it imperative for the honor and interest of the Country, that you should exercise great caution and economy in making your annual appropriations...

I deeply deplore the distress that the failure of an important branch of the Fisheries has caused to a portion of the hardy Colonial Line-fishing fishermen on our coast; yet from the bounty which has been granted to the fishery, and the bounty which has been granted to the fishery, and the bounty which has been granted to the fishery...

Your increased liberality in providing for Common School Education, has I am happy to say, given a wide impulse to that essential element in the welfare of the people, and by an unprecedented increase in the number of Teachers, and in the efforts made by the inhabitants in many districts for their support...

Reports from the Commissioners charged with the examination of the Public Works, and Accounts of the Expenditure connected therewith, are in course of preparation, and will be laid on the Table at an early day...

The Public Accounts, together with the Estimates for the current year, will shortly be placed before you...

A measure will be submitted for your consideration having in view an alteration in the constitution of the Legislative Council, by which the Elective principle may be brought into operation...

Your deliberation will also be invited to other important subjects by which it is hoped the prosperity of the Province may be promoted. You will require to make increased provision for the completion of that portion of the Hospital for the Insane, now erected, to prepare it for occupation...

The heavy liabilities connected with the indispensable progress of our public works, and the inadequacy of the sum voted for the St. Peter's Canal, as exhibited by the report of the Engineer, have compelled me reluctantly to suspend further expenditure on that service until the whole question shall be reviewed by the Legislature, when, I do not, but I will obtain the attention of your Excellency...

During the six years which I have had the honor and the happiness of presiding over the public councils of this colony, I have endeavored to direct my administration by principles, and to regulate it so as to be adapted to the necessities of the Colony, and to advance the welfare of the people...

The hon. the Speaker announced that during the recess he had received the resignation of Mr. Wm. and Stephen Thorne, Esq., of their seats as members of the House...

The hon. the Provincial Secretary laid upon the table the returns of the writs for the Township of Granville...