little more quality in the hocks than J. E. Martin's "Everest's Headlight," which took first place at Brandon. Heggie's "Rosehaugh Prince" was third. Yearlings went first to Robert Sinton's "Golden Youth," second to Will Grant's "Carruchan Knight," and third to "Chief of the Willows," owned by Smith Bros.

There was a prize given in every breed for the showing of any amateur exhibitor, and in Clydes, "Haile's Surprise," owned by Thos. How, took the red over "Chief of the Willows," owned by Smith Bros.

There was only one entry in brood mares with foal at foot, the prize going to "Lady Mackay," owned by Smith Bros. In yeld mares Grant's "Lady Hopetown," champion mare at Winnipeg in 1913, repeated her performance in Regina and showed in good fit, with plenty of action. Stutt's "Flower of Shallock" was second and is a good, well ribbed, typy mare, while Heggie's "Meadowlawn Princess" came third.

Three-year-old fillies were placed: 1, "Fanny Mitchell," J. E. Martin's winning mare; 2, "Meadowlawn Jean," owned by Will Grant. In two-year-old fillies "Lady Grace," a fine, straight mover, owned by Grant was first; "Queen of Overhill," a nice quality mare, owned by Archibald, was second, and another of his good mares, "Orvetta," was third.

In yearling fillies there was a certain amount of criticism of the placing. Will Grant's "Princess Curruchan" being placed over Martin's futurity winner, "Pearl Guide." The first horse is perhaps a little more stylish and a little heavier jointed than "Pearl Guide," but the latter colt has real type and is the essence of quality. Third place went to "Crownhill Belle," belonging to T. Heggie, and fourth to "White Stockings," owned by Smith Bros. The amateur exhibitor class went to animals owned by Smith Bros. The champion horse was "Haile's Surprise," which later received grand championship, and reserve was "Glendale Squire." Clyde mare championship went to "Fanny Mitchell," with "Lady Hopetown" reserve.

In Canadian Bred Clydesdales most of the awards were repeated, the same horses appearing which had already competed in the open classes.

Champion Canadian bred stallion was "Carruchan Knight," and champion Canadian bred mare was "Lady Grace."

Percherons

The Percheron show was not very outstanding this year and both in point of quality and numbers the showing was quite noticeably below usual standards. There were no Alberta breeders present, thus accounting for the small entry. Among the exhibitors were to be found: W. E. and R. C. Upper, North Portal; R. P. Stanley, Moosomin; W. D. Chase, Roche Perce; F. E. Williams, Rouleau; A. K. Larsen and W. A. Hazleton, Edgley; D. MacCallum, Forrest; and W. J. Elhinney, Regina. The awards were placed by T. H. Hassard, Markham, Ont.

The aged stallion class brought out three large bodied sires, "Tecumseh," owned by Grey being first; "Izola," owned by Williams, being second, and "Paramount Regent," belonging to Larsen and Hazleton being third.

Stanley's "Lubee," was given premier place in three-year-olds and eventually landed the championship. The Brandon champion "MacCallum Mac," again obtained the red in 1913 foals. In the female classes Uppers had a fine string and carried off the majority of the first places. Their splendid mare "Marjorie," was first in the brood mare class and champion female, with "Irene" as reserve.

The Canadian bred Percherons were practically the same as in the open classes, Upper's "Tecumseh" being the champion stallion and "Marjorie" the champion female.

Belgians

The really outstanding feature of the fair was the showing of Belgian horses. Heretofore this breed has received little attention on account of the poor shape and small showing which has been the rule but this year the splendid qualities of the breed have been especially
