lines. The skirt that accompanies it is in three pieces with a gathered back and that skirt is a pronounced favorite. It is sufficiently ample without exaggerated width and it takes graceful and becoming folds. The front edges are finished and lapped one over the other and there are patch pockets with novel laps that are both convenient and attractive. For some materials the skirt would be smart finished with buttons arranged on the hemmed edge, but here it is left plain, stitching making the only finish.

MOTHERHOOD—1916

E. A. Honeyman, in "Leslie's Magazine," New York

The night comes down and the wind is still.

(Are both of my boys asleep?) Daylight tinges the distant hill, (Why is it I can not weep?)

A passing lad and a whistled tune, (France is so far away!) Roses bloom and the month is June, (The heat is the worst, they say.)

The list was long in the morning's news, (They are so young to die!) Which strong heart will the bullet choose— Where will his body lie?

Boys go clattering down the street, (Which will come back to me?) I hear the tramp of the soldiers' feet, (Dear God! That such things can be!)

What will they buy with the blood of men? (Hearts break, but they do not die) Victory, honor—and war again! (Dead faces turned to the sky.)

AN UP-TO-DATE COAT

Check Effects are Much Liked for Top Coats The Pattern for this Design Besides Allowing for all Seams, gives the True Basting Line and Shows Diagrams for Cutting and Making

Such a loose and simple top coat as this one will fill an important need. It can be worn for motoring, it can be worn upon the piazza, it can be utilized for sports and it can be slipped on over any frock. It can be worn loose as it is on the figure or with a belt. In the illustration, checked wool velours is trimmed with a collar and cuffs of velvet. The contrast is a good one, the materials are smart and the coat is essentially practical as well as fashionable, but this is a model that can be copied in various materials. It would be handsome in broadcloth or in serge, it would be very sports-like and attractive if it were made in glove silk, or perhaps of linen to be worn over a skirt of striped

OSTERMOOR «O» OSTERMOOR

is as good today as when I bought it thirty years ago.

HOWEVER, Ostermoor quality at the familiar price of $15.00 has now become utterly impossible. The constantly-increasing cost of all materials used in manufacturing the Ostermoor Mattress has compelled us either to lower the Ostermoor standard, — or to increase the price. The former is unthinkable, and is not desired by the public; therefore, we are taking the other course.

On and after August 1st, the Ostermoor Mattress sells at $18.

You willingly pay $18 for a labor-saving device or a home comfort; then why not for an evenly buoyant, sanitary Ostermoor-Mattress that will give you a lifetime of the refreshing sleep comfort so vitally important to health?

You can buy this Mattress only at an Ostermoor dealer's. You can always identify the genuine Ostermoor by the binding around the edges similar to the border round this advertisement.
