W HEN Letty had scarce passed her third glad year, And her young artless words began to flow, One day we gave the child a colored sphere Of the wide Earth, that she might mark and know, By tint and outline, all its seas and land. She patted all the world; old Empires peeped Between her baby fingers; her soft hand Was welcome at all frontiers. How she leaped, And laughed and prattled in her world-wide bliss But when we turned her sweet unlearnéd eye On our own Isle, she raised a joyous cry-'Oh yes! I see it - Letty's home is there!"
