THE BAR.

HE SPEAKS OF THE NECESSITY OF FURTHER JUDICIAL HELP.

The courthouse was the scene of pleasant function Thursday morning prior to the commencement of business arising out of the count court docket. As a sample of the men who have His Honor Judge Leamy ascended the bench for the first time in this city. Judge Leamy is by no means a stranger in the Golden City, and the members cular line in the mining camps of the Northwest. His specialty is cage building, vantage of the occasion of his first official visit to Rossland to convey in kindly terms their esteem and respect.

The local bar was largely represented when the hour for opening court arrived. On the entrance of His Honor the bar paid the usual courtesy, and on Two miners named Williams and Judge Leamy assuming his seat T. miner's certificate No. B. 48583, intend, Mayne Daly, K.C., president of the Rossland Bar association, delivered a neat speech. He said that the pleasant duty devolved upon nim, as president of the Bar association, to welcome His Honor to Rossland. It was a matter cer put both men in the cells and con- of pleasure and gratification to the Bar of Rossland that one so eminently fitted by long years of experience to fill his high office had been chosen so aptly. He could assure His Honor en behaif of the Bar that they would at all times accord their sympathy and loyal sup-port in the maintenance of the dignity of the bench and the conduct of court proceedings. The Bar wished His Honor many years of usefulness, and trusted sincerely that matters would so eventuate that he would make up his mind to make Rossland his headquarters. In the opinion of the local bar the presence of a judge in Rossland was necessary not only in the interests of net, agent for F. H. elicitous nature.

His Honor Judge Leamy responded in an equally pleasant vein, his remarks in substance following. He assured Mr. Dely and the members of the Bar that oc appreciated the kindly welcome that had been extended to him and the encouraging words that had fallen from the lips of the president of the association. During the past few years he had to acquaint the authorities at Ottawa and Victoria of the absolute necessity the appointment judge for the took charge of this preservation of order at the C. P. R. depot, and by his orders no one was permitted to come on the platform at which the trains stop without showing that he had explicit business to be there. It is understood that heretofore the railroad people have refused permission to the police to do this, and only consented when it was seen that their passengers were kicking vigorously. The change will be appreciated by the travelling public.

That a judge should have the united support of the bar and their good feeling was a matter of the greatest importance, as it assisted him in carrying out the onerous duties of his office. After some further remarks in the same vein His Honor concluded a most pleasing speech. The regular business of the sitting was then proceeded with.

Philip Breen was brought up before the police magistrate yesterday morning, having been found trespassing upon the Centre Star grounds the previou night, and refusing to go off the Breen was shown to have been intoxi cated at the time. Notices have been posted at various points on the grounds including the railway track, warning the public that the property is private, and that trespassers will be prosecuted. The company's solicitor explained that the company did not desire to inflict any punishment upon the defendant, but merely to vindicate its rights. The police magistrate thereupon dismisse the accused with a strong caution that any trespassers in the future may not be dealt with so leniently.
