MUTINY IN CHINA PRETTY WELL IN HAND

Three of the Mutineers Were Killed and Five Were Wounded.
Band of Rebels Attacked the Police Station, But Were Beaten Off.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

Shanghai, Dec. 6.—The mutinous crew of the Chinese cruiser, Chao-Ho, abandoned the vessel early to-day after it had been bombarded and set on fire.

A band of rebels attacked the arsenal at midnight, but was repulsed. The authorities now appear to have complete command of the situation. Three of the mutineers were killed and five were wounded.

A band of 30 or 40 rebels, armed with rifles and bombs, attacked the Chapel sub-police station at 4 o'clock this morning. The rebels threw four bombs of which three exploded. One policeman was killed and three were wounded.

A body of regular troops was brought up quickly and the rebels disappeared. After the engagement last evening between the Chao-Ho and the loyal crews of the cruiser Hai-Chi, and the gunboat White of Alabama, there was no further firing by the warships until shortly before dawn. At that time the cruiser Ping Swei opened fire on the Chao-Ho. A shot struck the Chao-Ho about the bridge.

Fire broke out on the Chao-Ho. The rebels embarked on the launch before the mutiny began. The mutineers landed on the Pootung side of the city and disappeared in a body. The attack on the arsenal at midnight was made from the direction of the Hang-Chow railway. There was some rifle firing, but the arsenal troops acted promptly and calmly, and repulsed the attackers. So far as has been learned there were no casualties at the arsenal. The three men who were killed and the five wounded were shot down on the Chao-Ho.

A visit to the arsenal early this morning showed that the situation there was normal. The Chinese authorities have handled the outbreak with the greatest of coolness.

Repression in Belgium

By Special Wire to the Courier.
London, Dec. 6.—The Amsterdam correspondent of Reuter's Telegram Company sends the following:
"The Algemene Handesblad says it learns that another court-martial, occurred at Brussels on November 12, at which fifteen persons were sentenced to serve terms ranging from two and a half to fifteen years for treasonably hiding and assisting French airmen and supplying the enemy with men liable to military service. Three others, including the wife of one of the condemned were sentenced to short terms for not having denounced the foregoing crimes."

U. S. HOUSE OF CONGRESS OPENS TO-DAY

Several Important Matters Will be Up Shortly for Discussion.

MANY OLD-TIMERS BACK

Ex-Speaker Cannon is Most Notable Among the Men Who Overcame Defeat.

Washington, Dec. 6.—Congress is in session again after a nine months recess. Both Houses reassembled today, marking the beginning of the 66th Congress.

Much important business faces the members. Since the gavel last fell in the two Houses, many momentous questions have arisen. Overshadowed all others are those caused by the European war, but do not compose the entire program. In addition to the questions of national defence and revenues, which fall naturally under the general head of preparedness, the merchant marine and rural credits legislation promise to command much attention. Many investigations, centering mainly about war problems are to be inaugurated, and an interesting fight will ensue in the Senate over a proposed closure rule.

The first business before the House to-day was the election of a Speaker, South Trimble, the clerk, called the body to order. Members then proceeded to the election of a speaker. The Democratic majority defeated the Republican candidate, Representative Mann of Illinois, the Republican candidate for Speaker, was the choice of the Republicans for their leader.

Two hundred and twenty-nine Democrats, 197 Republicans, 6 Progressives, one Socialist and one Independent compose the new House. The dozen or more Republicans of the "old guard" who went down in defeat three years ago only to be returned to the Lower House over Democratic opponents last Fall, formed an interesting group. Joseph G. Cannon, former Speaker of the House, and now well on towards 80 years of age, stood out prominently. If he finishes his present term he will have served 40 years in Congress, 8 years as Speaker. Other Republicans who remained at home during the last Congress to re-appear to-day were Nicholas Longworth of Ohio; William B. McKinley, W. A. Rodenberg, Wm. W. Wilson, George E. Foss, John A. Sterling, Charles E. Thruston of Louisiana; Cyrus A. Salloway of New Hampshire, and Benjamin K. Focht of Pennsylvania. Meyer London, the first Socialist elected to Congress from New York, attracted as much attention as any other member.

Among the Republicans came Jas. W. Wadsworth of New York, successor to Root, who attracted attention as the youthful speaker of the New York Assembly; Charles Curtis of Kansas, who succeeds Bristow, and Warren Harding of Ohio, who succeeds Burton.

Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama, former majority leader of the House led the new Democrats. Other Democrats who took the oath were Jas. D. Phelan, of California; I. C. Beckham of Kentucky; Robert F. Broussard of Louisiana; Edwin S. Johnson of South Dakota; and Paul C. Hastings of Wisconsin. The Senators of the French Foreign Office for his service in providing and maintaining a hospital at Dunkirk.

Owing to workers who buy coal by the half hundredweight being charged the high rate of $10.80 a ton, the Chatham corporation have appointed a committee to draw up a scheme for establishing a municipal coal depot.

LOCAL OPTION IN WARD THREE.

All who are willing to work in the Local Option campaign in Ward Three, meet at headquarters, 77 George street, Tuesday evening, Dec. 7th, at 8 o'clock.

The King has given $5,000 and the Queen $25 to the Prisoners of War Help Committee.

The Hon. Mrs. Eustace Frennes, wife of the member for North Oxon, has received from the French Government the gold medal—1st brevet of the French Foreign Office for his service in providing and maintaining a hospital at Dunkirk.

Between 250 and 300 wounded soldiers, chiefly colonials, were entertained by His Majesty's judges, members of the Bar and the superintendent and staff of the Royal Hospital, and given special facilities for seeing the Lord Mayor's Show.

EXTRAORDINARY INTERVIEW WITH GRECIAN
Constantine Talks About Politics to Can Correspond GREEK NEUTRAL TRIED BY
They Refuse to Believe Personal Word That Will Not be Attain Shows Knowledge of Geography in Cana ences to Cana
Athens, Dec. 4. via Malta don, December 7.—Constantine of Greece received respondent of the Associated-to-day and gave him a me America on the attitude which has assumed in the world war reasons for the policy which followed by the Greek government. "I am especially glad to America," said the king, "for will understand Greece's position both neutral and are determined, if it is humanely not to court destruction by themselves to be drawn into the full vortex of the present conflict."
"WARNS AMERICA"
"America is protected in immediate danger by the distance separates her from the battle too, thought that once, but she shifted and may shift. What is happening in Greece may happen in America. It is a neutral country, to-morrow the precedent now sought to be established in the case of Greece fixed."
The interview with the king place of news in the smallest which is the king's personal record and the audience lasted an hour. From time to time, emphasizing the earnestness and sincerity, he was saying, he thumped the soundly with his clenched fist, he was delivering, his fine grace occasioned twinkled with reason.
DENIES TREACHERY
The fundamental cause of the threatening attitude of the powers towards Greece to-day, the painful situation which he said the king, "is the entente assumption, without the reason therefore, that Greece to betray the entente to Germany the first favorable opportunity reasonable to suppose such a "From the very outset of the in the Near East Greece's neck has been stretched to the utter accommodate the entente, whom we have always felt the sympathy and the deepest of the Dardanelles operations were Greek soil, from which with allied troops, Whence was endangered by the combined German and Bulgarian attack, lied troops landed unopposed Greek soil, from which with and too long delayed campaign, aided in every way consistent any sort of neutrality, their and too long delayed campaign, rescue their lives."
GAVE HIS WORD
"Finally, I myself, have given personal word that Greek troops never be used to attack the British forces in Macedonia. It is to ally unjustified suspicions, despite all these evidences of the faith of Greece, the entente now demand, in a form which usually an ultimatum, that the troops be withdrawn from Gall and that means all Macedonia, ing our population unprotected against raids by Bulgarian or all the horrors of war which Belgium waste should the all driven back within our frontier."
"Just suppose the Germans were a position to demand that you ally concede the use of a base at Seattle as the base for an attack Canada. What would you say? If all your military experience advise of your general state, that that failure because made with an quite force, and you realized that British troops in Canada would sue the retreating Germans, as New England, destroying as absent, would you accept the proposition without a struggle?"
ADMITS ASSURANCES
"But has not Your Majesty given assurance that the integrity of territory will be respected?" he was asked.
"Of course, and entente assistance."
"And similar assurances from garia?"
"Germany," said the king, given assurance for herself an ally. But that does not prevent German-Bulgarian armies, as a ure of military necessity, from suing the retreating French and into Greece, fighting in Greece turning Greece into a second front. I have the assurance from me, "That the Greek frontiers will erected after the war does not news or compensate my people months, perhaps, years, spent
