Toronto, April 20.—Peacefully, almost imperceptibly, the semi-conscious sleep in which Sir Oliver Mowat has lain since Wednesday night became at six minutes to 10 yesterday morning the dreamless slumber of death.

shumber of death.

The aged statesman was surrounded by his family, all of whom had remained within call since they were summoned to his bedside at midnight on Wednesday, a long vigil of eighty hours. They were Sheriff and Mrs. Mowat, Mr. Arthur and Mrs. Mowat, Mr. C. R. W. Biggar, K.C., and Mrs. Biggar, Mr. Thomas Langen, K.C.; and Mrs. Langton, and Miss. Mowat, Dr. Primrose and Dr. Temple were also present.

Miss Riowat, Dr. Frances and Dr. Femple were also present. Sir Oliver did not regain con-sclousness. His vitality, the physi-cians said, was wonderful, and his imply ebbed away.

The first public announcement the death was the half-masting

Immediate Cause of Death. The official bulletin gives this explanation of the accident that was the immediate cause of death:

"On the 8th day of January last his Honor the Lieutenant-Governor was walking by himself up and down the hall at Government House watching his grandchildren at play, when he tripped and fill heavily, sustaining a fracture of the neck of the right thigh bone, He suffered a good deal of pain and discomfort, but he gradually recovered and was able to walk, with some assistance. and to support his weight upon the finjured limb. On Sunday night, April 12, whilst he was being undressed for bed, and whilst two of the attendants were in the act of lifting him from his chair, the right thigh was broken a short distance above the centre of the bone and some six inches below the previous break. The fracture was set, chlor-oform being administered for the purpose, and the necessary splints were applied. His Honor stood the immediate effects of the injury well, and no alarming symptoms developed until Tuesday night shortly fore midnight, when his heart's tion began to fail, and it soon came evident that he could not recover. Since that time he has been growing gradually weaker." Tributes to Sir Oliver's Worth.

News comes from all over the country that flags fly at half mast in honor of Sir Oliver. In very many of the churches here yesterday references to his caree were made by the pastors, and from many public men tributes were paid to the deceased's memory, two of the most notable being those of the Hon. G. W. Ross, Premier of Ontar-to. and Sir William Ralph Meredith, 15 years leader of the Opposi-in the Legislature.

Brantford. April 20.—Fire last night completely destroyed the Indian Institute, a school for Indians, situated a short distance from this city. The Institute was founded years ago by the New England Company for the instruction of Indian children, and was erected on a large plot of land granted for the purpose by the Dominion Government. It was maintained at the expense of the company, and the Government. The building comprised three stories. The fire originated in this dormitory on the third storey shortly after 10 o'clock, where the 150 students in attendance were saleep. There was much confusion when the alarm was sounded, but fortunately the building was cleared before anyone was injured. The flames spread with great speed, and by midnight every department in the building had been utterly destroyed.

Toronto, April 20.—On Friday afternoon at 2.40 o'clock the Royal Commission adjourned the trial of Mr. Gamey's bribery charges against Hon. James Stratton and other Ministers until Monday. On Monday of last week at 10 o'clock Chancellor Boyd and Chief Justics Falconbridge entered the court room.

For the prosecution there were present: Messrs. S. H. Blake, K.C.; C. H. Ritchie, K.C.; W. D. McPherson, K.C., and J. A. Macdonald.

For the defence: Messrs. E. F. B. Johnston, K. C.; W. R. Riddell, K. C., and J. M. McBvoy.

Mr. Johnston objected to the width of Mr. Blake's formulated charges.

width of Mr. Blake's formulated charges.

Chancellor Boyd made it clear at once that the Commission would take Mr. Gamey's speech in the Ontario Legislature as the primary basis of its work. Other matters could be argued and decided afterwards.

'After some production witnesses had produced the documents and papers in their possession, Mr. R. R. Gamey, M.P.P. for Manitoulin, was called and swors. He told the story of his charges practically the same as in the House, and his direct examination was concluded at three o'clock. Mr. Johnston followed as cross-examiner, and subjected the o'clock. Mr. Johnston followed as cross-examiner, and subjected the witness to a most strenuous examination, which continued all Tuesday and until nearly noon on Wednesday. Mr. Blake then re-examined Mr. Gamey in rebuttal, and the member for Manitoulin then stepped from the witness box after having been 18 hours on the stand.

Mr. M. O. Hammond, reporter of The Globe followed and told of receiving from Mr. Gamey the copy of the interview published in that paper when Mr. Gamey announced his intention of supporting the Government. He received the document from Mr. Gamey in the Legislative Buildings.

Mr. Crossin, piano manufacturer, followed, and swore that Mr. Gamey had deposited money of large denominations in the Traders' Bank during the last week of the Industrial Exhibition, and that Mr. Gamey had told him the amount was $1,500 and where he got it.

Thursday morning Mr. Aylesworth, K.C., was the first witness. He swore that a day prior to Mr. Gamey's visit to his office with Frank Sullivan on the 10th September, 1902, Mr. Stratton had told of Mr. Gamey's conversion, and he advised getting a letter to that effect, and Mr. Stratton drew one up and handed it to him.
