LESSON IV. Oct. 24, 1920
What the King Requires.
Matthew 15: 1-10, 43-48.

COMMENTARY.—1. The Beatitudes (vs. 1-3). Seeing the multitudes—Christ's preaching and miracles had attracted great crowds. He saw them in their needs and knew the truths that would do them good. He did not allow the opportunity to pass unimproved. Into a mountain—it is generally believed that this was "The Horns of Hattin," an elevation about sixty feet high, seven miles southwest of Capernaum, and two or three miles west of the Sea of Galilee. There are two hills rising above the level plain which have been thus designated. 2. Opened his mouth—This expression indicates the importance of what was to be uttered. Taught them—Christ's teaching, giving instruction, saying—This and the two following chapters give us the substance of what Christ said upon this occasion.

3. Blessed—This is the first of nine verses beginning with the word blessed. This group of "blessed" verses is called the Beatitudes, as each one begins with the Latin word "beati," meaning happy. The English word happy, however, is not strong enough to express the thought. Blessed implies a joy that is spiritual, whose source is divine, "produced by God's sunshine in the soul." Poor in spirit—The poor in spirit are those who realize their need and feel their spiritual poverty. They are penitent and hence are in a condition to receive the promised blessing. Those who are proud and self-satisfied are far from being poor in spirit. Those who humble themselves and repent of their sins are candidates for the blessing attached to this condition. Kingdom of heaven—There is a sharp contrast between temporal poverty and the possession of a kingdom, so there is a sharp contrast between spiritual poverty and the possession of the kingdom of heaven. Christ comes into the heart and sets up His kingdom, which is "righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost," and reigns there Himself.

4. Mourn—Here is expressed a want, a longing. They mourn because they have sinned. This does not refer to worldly or temporal sorrow. It does not mean mourning for lost health, wealth or friends, but godly sorrow that leads to repentance. "Of gentle and long-suffering disposition; of peaceable temper; submissive, complaint yielding." When this due composure of mind has reference to God, it is termed resignation; "when it is exerted toward men, it is 'mildness and gentleness,' when we consider it with regard to ourselves, we style it 'patience.'" Wesley. Inherit the earth—The land; an inheritance frequently used by the prophets to signify the land of Canaan. Under this figure our Lord promises the abundance of spiritual good provided for in the gospel. The Canaan of perfect rest and joy and peace is the inheritance of those who are truly meek. 6. Hunger and thirst—These strong expressions set forth the longing of the soul for spiritual good.

7. Blessed are the merciful—Those who feel for the woes and distresses of others, whether friends or enemies, and open their hands for their relief. "The merciful," says Erasmus, "are those who weep over the calamities of others, who feed the hungry and clothe the naked, admonish those in error and pardon the offending." obtain mercy—He shall be dealt with in mercy by God and man. The exercise of mercy brings its own reward. "It blesseth him that gives, and him that takes." There is genuine satisfaction in being merciful to others, and God and our fellow men repay in addition by being compassionate toward us. We are able by nature to extend mercy to others, though this ability is greatly enhanced by grace. 8. Blessed are the pure in heart—Paul says, "Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart" (1 Tim. 1: 5). The purpose of the gospel is to make the heart pure. To be pure in heart is to have all sin removed, and John says, "The blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin" (1 John 1: 7). Man can not make his heart pure, but God can. Only those whose hearts are pure have correct spiritual insight.

9. Blessed are the peace-makers—The peace-maker is one who is peaceable himself and seeks to promote peace wherever his influence extends. Jesus is the great example of this class. "He came to bring peace to earth, yet he was always opposed to unrighteousness, and severely denounced hypocrisy and other forms of sin. Children of God—God is spoken of in the Bible as the God of peace. Those who "follow peace with all men" (Heb. 12: 14), are like him and are called his children. They become such by being born of the Spirit and adopted into the family of God. 10. Persecuted for righteousness' sake—Persecuted, cruelly hounded, because they maintain and practice righteous principles. They seek to make the world better and are hated by evil-doers. 11, 12. It is the lot of those who are truly saved to be reviled and persecuted, but the Lord's gracious presence and blessing are bestowed, and these more than compensate for the suffering endured.

11. The disciples' influence (vs. 13-16). The followers of Jesus are a force in the community where they live and in the sphere of their activities. They are compared to salt, "the true salt of the earth," of which are, to render the food to which it is applied more palatable and to preserve food. Any community is better for having in it the presence of Christians, and is a more favorable place in which to live. The presence of Christians on the earth is a preservative. If there had been more righteous persons in Sodom, the Lord would not have destroyed the city. Christ's followers are the light of the world. Light is one of the most useful and necessary agents in nature, and fits the eye, which is the instrument of vision. The world has a spiritual sense and is capable of illuminating by the light that

MURDER, WHAT MAKES YOU SO CROSS?

Poor mother, has headache, dizzy spells, headache and is nervous, which are all symptoms of woman's trouble.

Most women neglect their health, and for this neglect they pay the penalty. Any woman who suffers thus will find that she loses flesh faster than Nature can put it on. She will find that neglect does not pay. A little more attention to health would brighten up her life and make her worries fewer. If she asks her neighbors she finds that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription benefits a woman's whole system. It not only acts upon the troubles and weaknesses peculiar to women, but is an all-around vegetable tonic that braces the entire body, relieving nervousness, sleeplessness, headaches, dizziness and a run-down condition.

Dr. Pierce put his Favorite Prescription in the drug stores in 1870. For fifty years it has stood the test, and thousands upon thousands of women everywhere in Canada can testify that this non-alcoholic tonic made them healthy and well. Send ten cents to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial package of Favorite Prescription tablets.

emanates from genuine Christians.

III. Jesus fulfilling the law (vs. 17-42). Jesus did not come to destroy the law, but to fulfill. He not only taught that one should not kill, but that he should not hate or despise another. He showed that sin consists not alone in the act itself, but more particularly in the intention or desire. He warned his hearers against taking oaths and told them to let their yes be yes and their nay, nay. They should tell the truth and let no one have any ground to suspect that they were guilty of deception. Jesus declared that one should suffer wrongfully rather than be revenged.

IV. Standard of Christian character (vs. 43-48). 43. love thy neighbor—This is quoted from Lev. 10: 16, which reads, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." The Jewish teachers interpreted "neighbor" as meaning only Jews, but Jesus would have the word include all who are within the sphere of our influence. 44. love your enemies—This is a command beyond the reach of multitudes in their present condition. Who can obey it? Only those who have hearts filled with the love of God. 45. what reward—It is not a virtue to love those who are amiable and who love us. 47.—salute—The Oriental salutations are profuse and much time is occupied with them. The usual salutation is "salam," peace, your brethren only—Jesus would break down the custom of showing respect to only those of one's own class or kind, more than others—The Christian should surpass in gentleness, kindness and love those who are not followers of Jesus. 48. perfect—The standard is perfection in love and moral purity. We are required to be perfect Christians. The prayer of Paul for the Thessalonians was to this end, "The very God of peace sanctify you wholly" (1 Thess. 5: 23). Read also 1 John 1: 7.

Questions—Where and when was the sermon on the Mount preached? Give the meaning of blessed. What is meant by being poor in spirit? By the kingdom of heaven? Who are the real mourners? What are the meek? Who are the merciful? How is the heart purified? Whom should we love? What is the standard of Christian character?

PRACTICAL SURVEY.

Topic—The character which Jesus requires.

1. The Beatitudes.
A period of several weeks intervened between the incidents of the previous lesson and this. After his great Sabbath of preaching and healing at Capernaum. (Luke 4: 33, 34), Jesus had gone forth with his disciples through Galilee. Teaching, preaching, healing constituted the order of his ministry. With this tour began the training of his disciples for their work. It was a new step in the progress of his kingdom, which knows no territorial limits nor distinctions of race or place. The heavenly power which he would not use in his own behalf flowed unobscuredly in blessing, though the only specific incident recorded is the healing of the leper (Luke 5: 12-15). Returning to Capernaum after a night of prayer in an adjoining mountain, he called to him of his followers "whom he would." He provided his church with the teachers who were to guide them, and in the Sermon on the Mount, the doctrines which they were to preach.

1. The Beatitudes. The Beatitudes, "Blessings," constitute the introduction to the discourse which follows. It is an epitome of the principles of which the sermon is an unfolding and application. They are nine in number, six having reference to personal character and reward, the remainder to outward relations and conditions. The former follow an intimate recognition of the blessed life, goodness and reward are inseparable. "The flower brings its own odor." "The poor in spirit," have the kingdom already.

11. The application. Obligation follows blessing. After the Beatitudes comes law. The former reveal the nature and constitution of the kingdom in relation to itself. The sermon discloses the same kingdom in its relation to the world, and together they sweep the whole circuit of human obligations. God's people are the preserving, illuminating agencies of the world. Salt and sunlight are the great essentials which keep the world alive and pure. If the savor be lost, worthlessness and dishonor result. The new commandments of the Mount of Beatitudes do not abrogate, but complete, the Sinaitic law. The external distinctions between right and wrong unfilled both. Jesus obeyed and fulfilled both. He requires not the ostentatious and exaggerated scrupulousity of pharisaic ceremonialism, but a surrender of the heart and will to the spirit of the commandments. The spirit of transgression is in the disposition. In angry feelings in the germ of murder; in a lascivious look, that of adultery. Better be maimed and blinded than destroyed. God's providence sends sunshine and rain on all. The closing verse of the lesson develops the Christian ideal of character. The word "perfect" signifies completeness in all its parts. Christian perfection is an evangelical perfection. "Ye are complete in him." It means sincere compliance with all the divine precepts, through the virtue and power of the atonement.

Thousands of mothers can testify to the virtue of Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator, because they know from experience how useful it is.

SUNDAY AT HOME

Would you know the purest pleasure That to human hearts can flow Would you snatch the greatest treasure Time keeps buried 'neath his woe Think and act alone for others Leaving self to lag behind; Treat mankind as sisters' brothers, Be 'ye pitiful and kind.' W. Sneed.

GLEANINGS.

It is all right to try, try again, but it is better to make good the first time.

You call God. He often descends and knocks at your door—to be told you are not at home.

You find people ready enough to do the Samaritan, without the oil and twopenny.—Sydney Smith.

The body might as soon thrive in a fever as the soul prosper when burning with contention and strife.

Overturn a man's wrong-doing, but do not overturn him unless it must be done in overturning the wrong.—Lincoln.

The most valuable asset of an employee is his spirit—cannot be bought with so cheap a thing as money. It must be won.

The grand essentials of happiness are something to do, something to love, something to hope for, Christ offers all three.

Room for pleasure. Room for business, but for Christ the Crucified, not a place that He could enter, in the heart for which He died.

What an opportunity is prayer! It is laying hold of Almightyness, Omnipotence, and Omnipresence at one and the same time.—Dr. Talmage.

Never criticize the Church in any point until you have done your best to remedy that defect; and after that you will not want to criticize.

THE BIGGEST THING.

The biggest thing in the world, without any question, is Christianity. Christianity, however, is the establishment of God and therefore ought to be the biggest thing in the world.

After Christianity, the biggest thing in the world is Faith. By Faith I mean, doing Jesus Christ for all He claims Himself to be and able to do all He has promised. The Faith of the world is born, grows and attains its full potency amid doubtings and questionings.

Faith makes men. Faith to men is what a mother's presence is to her child. He who does not possess Faith, though he may have almost everything else, lacks the one big thing. What did Jesus have in mind when He said to the rich young fellow in His presence, "One thing thou lackest"?

When a man loses Faith, he loses everything. Men may dream, plan and scheme, yet what is ever accomplished without Faith? Three men are entrusted with talents. Two increase their talents one hundredfold, only as far as I can see, because of Faith. The old, old story of bloodshed and devastation is nothing else than jealousy and distrust.

Take men of Faith out of the world and at once everything goes to smash. Faith made this nation, Faith is the bulwark of the Nation and if anything will save the Nation in the hour of crisis it is the oldtime simple trust and Faith.

Think you when the Son of Man cometh shall He find plenty on earth? Though He find plenty of everything else and not find Faith, would He be satisfied?

Hand in hand with Faith go Reverence and Courtesy. These three are supports of Christian civilization. Only Faith uncovers and bows the head in the presence of Almighty God with that reverent awe always due Him. Only he who reveres God will honor the laws of the nation. Only Faith enables a man to hold himself in control and to live with due regard for the rights and feeling of others.

If our Christian civilization, which seems to be threatened, is in any way jeopardized, it is because Reverence and Courtesy to a very large degree are spurned. If now Faith be cast aside, the crash, as of Greece and Rome, is inevitable.

LIGHT.

She thought by heaven's high wall that she did stray, Till she beheld the everlasting gate; And she climbed up to it to long and wait.

Feel with her hands (for it was night), and lay Her lips to it with kisses; thus to pray That it might open to her, desolate, And let it tremble; low! her passionate Crying prevailed. A little, little way It opened; there fell out a thread of light, And she saw winged wonders move therein.

Also she heard sweet talking, as they meant To comfort her. They said, "Who comes Shall certainly an entrance win." Then the gate closed, and she awoke content.

—Jean Ingelow.

Health cannot be looked for in the child that is subject to worms, because worms destroy health by creating internal disturbances that retard development and cause serious weakness. Miller's Worm Powders expel worms and are so beneficial in their action that the systems of the little sufferers are restored to healthfulness, all the discomforts and dangers of worm infection are removed, and satisfactory growth is assured.

The ostrich hides its head in the sand on the same principle that inspires the fellow who is head over ears in debt to feel out of sight.

CUTICURA HEALS SISTER'S ECZEMA

In Rash All Over Body. Burned And Itched. Could Not Rest.

"My little sister had eczema all over her body. It came like a rash, and was burning and itching. She could get no rest, and we would have to use her clothing to take it off. She was so sore and itched, and the breaking out seemed disfiguring."

"She had the eczema about five months when we tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment. We could see she was getting relief, and we just used one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment when she was healed." (Signed) Miss Jessie Campbell, Strathmore, Nova Scotia, January 16, 1920.

EMPIRE IS ONE, MUST REMAIN SO

For Any Unit to Secede Would Be Great Wrong.

Under-Secretary of Colonies Talks Plainly.

London, Oct. 2.—Col. Amery, Under-Secretary of State for the Colonies, speaking at a meeting to-day of emigration agents, said he doubted if responsible dominion man would endorse what had been said in the Irish controversy that the essence of the dominion status consisted in the moral right of peaceful secession.

If the people of the dominions were willing to sacrifice their privileges and assume the duties and responsibilities of world-wide British citizenship, there was no power here to prevent them, and, in the same way the Home Country might secede from the Empire, but this power did not constitute a right to do so, however bloodlessly it might be accomplished.

The secession of anyone of us, said, would still be a revolution, an unconstitutional act, and a profound moral wrong to the rest of the commonwealth and to all humanity.

Col. Amery concluded: "Let no more be heard of a moral right to destroy the unity of the British Empire and impair the heritage of our own citizenship. The Empire is one and will and must remain so."

GUARD THE CHILDREN FROM AUTUMN COLDS

The Fall is the most severe season of the year for colds — one day is warm, the next cold and wet and unless the mother is on her guard, the little ones are seized with colds that may hang on all winter. Baby's Own Tablets are mothers' best friend in preventing or banishing colds. They act as a gentle laxative, keeping the bowels and stomach free and sweet. An occasional dose of the Tablets will prevent colds, or if it does come on suddenly their prompt use will relieve the baby. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Economical Ash Barrel.

Take a barrel, saw it in half, leave one half as it is, the other on the end sawed, nail one-half inch mesh netting, so only the dust falls through, then saw off the head of same half about three inches from top for a lid. Nail four sticks on side for first half, so when second half is placed on it can't slip off. Put your ashes in the top and dust will fall through. When feeding furnace or stove, use ashes left, in the top, mixed in with your other coal, and by doing so will find they will burn as well as fresh coal, and will only use half the amount and get the same heat.

Relieves Asthma at Little Expense. Thousands of dollars have been vainly spent upon remedies for asthma and seldom, if ever, with any relief. Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy, despite its assurance of benefit, costs so little that it is within reach of all. It is the national remedy for asthma, far removed from the class of doubtful and experimental preparations. Your dealer can supply it.

When Love is Young.

They were standing at the front gate. "Won't you come into the parlor and sit a little while, George, dear?" "No, I guess not," replied George, hesitatingly. "I wish you would," the girl went on. "It's awfully lonesome. Mother has gone out and father is upstairs groaning with rheumatism in the legs." "Both legs?" asked George. "Yes, both legs." "Then, I'll come in a little while."

For Asthma and Catarrh.—It is one of the chief recommendations of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil that it can be used internally with as much success as it can outwardly. Sufferers from asthma and catarrh will find that the Oil when used according to directions will give immediate relief. Many sufferers from these ailments have found relief in the Oil and have sent testimonials.

It stands to reason that the auctioneer knows more about sales than the sailor knows about auctions.
