Chancellor Von Buelow Presents Troubled Picture.

Germany Has Been Living Too High and Must Increase Taxation—Some Startlingly Odious Comparisons—Glad of a Happier Understanding With Great Britain—German Question Helping Czar—Moreauan Question.

Berlin, Dec. 7.—Chancellor Von Buelow yesterday opened the debate in the Reichstag on the German new measures for increasing and adjusting taxation so as to properly meet the Empire's increased requirements. The troubled picture in comparison with those of Great Britain and France, Germany had been living from hand to mouth. The deficits which had occurred since October, 1899, were even larger.

The Empire, until 1875, was free from debt. Now it owed $375,000,000 for which $25,000,000 in interest was required. The debt of the Empire and those of the confederated German states amounted to $3,750,000,000, or over $62 per capita.

The United States, while Germany had been increasing her debt to the great sum he had mentioned, had reduced her debt of $3,480,000,000 to a fraction of the amount. The other great states also had regular plans for the gradual reduction of their debt.

Germany's expenditures, in spite of severe economy, had increased rapidly and not having the means to meet them, the chancellor admitted that Germany must reckon with a deep-seated antipathy in Great Britain, but he greeted with satisfaction the recent signs of an improved feeling on the part of the British people toward Germany. He said he felt would see therein the beginning of the restoration of a similar civilization. Between Germany and the other two members of the triple alliance, the chancellor said not the slightest conflict of interests existed; nevertheless, Germany must be strong enough to stand alone without allies if need be.

The chancellor then discussed the Moroccan question, pointing out that Germany had well grounded rights and "was not playing the role of a wretched mischief-maker. He maintained that Germany was a peace-loving nation, and said that the idea of German thirst for revenge against France was absurd.

SARNIA COMPLAINS.
Railway Commission Told Port Huron Elevators Get Preference.

Sarnia, Dec. 7.—A lively session of the Canadian Railway Commission took place yesterday. J. C. Smith, manager for a Chicago firm controlling the Sarnia and Port Huron elevators, claimed the Grand Trunk discriminated against Sarnia to the advantage of Port Huron elevator. He made an affidavit that certain empty cars delivered to Port Huron had been transferred to Port Huron to accommodate a Canadian boat unloading there.

The G.T.R. solicitors and John Boyd, the local G.T.R. agent, contend that Sarnia gets a fair share of cars, and by taking cars to Port Huron the railway released boats for the up trip and relieved the congestion of west bound freight at Port Huron.

T. H. Cook gave figures showing that the elevator business carried more than doubled with present facilities if cars were furnished. The commission asked for further details.

A committee from the Sarnia board of trade, representing Sarnia lumber interests, with shipments aggregating 100 cars a week, protested against the new railway car stake rules. Shippers were put to an expense of $2 a car with no benefit and the railway should share the expense or furnish stakes.

The warden of Lambton County, W. A. Graham, gave notice of a demand to be made for more crossings on the Michigan Central.

Strathroy Town Council filed a request for a hearing regarding railway crossings.

The commission held by special car for Chatham.

BERNHARDT IN OTTAWA.
Quebec Attack On Her Made By Handful of Irresponsible Fools.

Ottawa, Dec. 7.—Sarah Bernhardt says that the attack on the party in Quebec was made by a handful of irresponsible young fools. She knew that she had the sympathy of the better class. She made no such statement about Canadians being descendants of ferocious Indians, as attributed to her interview.

Some of the party were struck by missiles thrown at Quebec, and some of the gentlemen of the party had their overcoats torn.

Madame Bernhardt took lunch at Rieuau Hall yesterday with Lord and Lady Grey.

D. M. McIntyre, K. C., Nominated.
Kingston, Dec. 7.—At a largely attended convention of the Conservatives last evening, Donald M. McIntyre, K. C., was nominated to contest the bye-election caused by the unseating of E. J. B. Pense.

No other name was mentioned, and on being put to the convention the resolution was carried unanimously.

The candidate then expressed his acceptance of the same and spoke at length.

Goos For Trial.
Kingston, Dec. 7.—Feldman, alias Jack Thompson, from Toronto and Montreal, implicated in the McKay robbery here, was committed for trial yesterday. The evidence was chiefly circumstantial.

Tax on the Slot Machine.

Don't Do It By Starving It Either—Let a Substitute Do The Work.

The old adage, "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy," applies just as well to the stomach, one of the most important organs of the human system, as it does to the man himself.

If your stomach is worn out and rebels against being taxed beyond its limit, the only sensible thing you can do is to give it a rest. Employ a substitute for a short time and see if it will not more than repay you in results.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a willing and most efficient substitute. They themselves digest every bit of food in the stomach in just the same way that the stomach itself would, were it well. They contain all the essential elements that the gastric juice and other digestive fluids of the stomach contain and actually act just the same and do just the same work as the natural fluids would do, were the stomach well and sound. They, therefore, relieve the stomach, as one workman relieves another, and permit it to rest and recuperate and regain its normal health and strength.

This "vacation" idea was suggested by the letter of a eminent lawyer in Chicago. Read what he says: "I was engaged in the most momentous undertaking of my life in bringing about the coalition of certain great interests that meant much to me as well as my clients. It was not the work of days, but of months; I was working night and day almost when at a very critical time my stomach went completely back on me. The undue mental strain brought it about and I wondered what would have happened later."

"What I did to literally force down and that was a source of misery, as I had a sour stomach much of the time. My head ached, I was sluggish and began to lose my ambition to carry out my duties. It looked pretty gloomy for me and I confided my plight to one of my clients. He had been cured by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and at once I went down to a drug store and bought a box up to the top of my head."

"I had not taken a quarter of that box before I found that they would do all the work my stomach ever did out of the question of vacation. I determined to give my stomach a vacation. I kept right on taking the tablets and braced up and went ahead with my work with renewed vigor, ate just as much as I ever did and carried out that undertaking to a successful issue. I felt that I had Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets to thank for saving me the handsome fee I received as well as my reputation and last but not least my stomach."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are for sale by all druggists at 50 cents a box.
