The best Burley Tobacco made in Canada.

It's Not the Cost that Measures the Value

Test FUNDY on the toughest grade you can find. Pick out a steep and crooked hill. Take it on high.

Slow down for the curve. Then "give 'er the gas"! Get that instantaneous "feel" of power—the reserve power of FUNDY!

Every atom of FUNDY yields up its full power on the instant you want it.

FUNDY runs cool and smooth. It is the better gasoline; costs more than the cheaper grades of gas, but it is worth it.

FUNDY is sold at all Filling Stations and Garages.

FATAL ACCIDENT AT PLASTER ROCK

A Pole, employed by the Fraser Lumber Co. at Plaster Rock and commonly known as "Proddie" was instantly killed while at his work last Tuesday morning. He was engaged at unloading cars in the lumber yard and had removed the stakes from a loaded car, thereby causing the lumber to fall, crushing him to death. He had been in the employ of the Fraser Co. for the past 15 years and was considered a trusty and industrious employee. The sympathy of the community is extended to the bereaved wife and family.—Victoria Co. News.

BURGLARY AT FORT FAIRFIELD

L. H. Bradbury's jewelry store, Odd Fellows building, was robbed on Tuesday night of nearly $400 worth of jewelry—pearl necklaces, rings, etc., besides one or two watches and fountain pens. The burglars apparently effected an entrance through the railway at the rear of the building, coming up the stairs leading from the basement into the store, there taking a door off its hinges. They also entered A. J. Price's barber shop, but took nothing there. The same night F. E. Peterson's garage was entered by a window on the west side, the thieves breaking a pane of glass and
