"I was not at the opening of the bids," "I was not at the opening of the bids," maid Jeffries before leaving the city, "he-cause I only want to meet Johnson once more, and that is in the ring. And that will be the last time I will see him."

Before the final announcement of th successful bidder for the fight promot ers and sporting men generally were o the opinion that "Tex" Rickard, of Ne were o vada, in conjunction with John J. Glea son, of California, would be the winner with his bid of a purse of $101,000 cash and two-thirds of the moving picture and two-thirds of the moving picture proceeds. Other bids were considered better by some, particularly that of Tom McCar-thy, of Los Angeles, but the control of the moving picture patents by Jimmy Coffroth and the triple alliance of Rick-ard, Gleason and Coffroth was counted as too strong for outsiders like McCar-thy and Eddie Graney. Rickard said to-day that Coffroth had offered to bet him $1,000 that Rickard would get the fight. Coffroth sent a message to San Francisco last night de-claring that Rickard had been awarded the fight already, and Coffroth is con-sidered the best authority here.
