

"LET EVERY ONE OF US PLEASE HIS NEIGHBOR, FOR HIS GOOD TO EDIFICATION." — ROM. XV. 2.

MR. RUSKIN ON ART IN CONNECTION WITH CIVILISATION.

At the opening meeting of the Architectural Museum, London, on the 13th inst., Mr. Ruskin read an elaborate and elegant paper, in which he first dealt at length on art as it existed in its primitive...

LAUNCH OF THE LEVIATHAN.

On Sunday, the 31st ult., as the flood relieved the weight upon the launching ways, some of the hydraulic...

THE LAW OF LUCK.

The Law of Luck.—The following is a copy of the Lord Chief Justice Campbell's new bill to amend the law of libel...

SIR COLIN CAMPBELL'S GUIDE.

The London papers publish the narrative of James Cavanagh, who was engaged, as a working field engineer and surveyor, in the construction of the railway...

The Charists, warned by the past, seem now disposed to act rationally in any proceeding. They are willing to co-operate with the middle-class Reformers in carrying a many points of the Charter as they are likely, with such aid, to secure...

A meeting has been held in Dublin to protest against the abolition of the office of Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland. The Lord Mayor, who conveyed the meeting, presided, and a subscription was opened to carry out the object of the meeting...

The Shah of Persia has contributed £500 to the Indian Relief Fund, as proof of his friendship for the British Government, and to show his detestation of the cruelties which have been practised by the British in India...

THE SEA SERPENT CAUGHT.

The following letter appears in the Times of yesterday:—Six—In your paper of the 5th inst. is a letter from Captain Harrington, of the ship Castilian, stating his belief he had seen the great sea serpent near St. Helena...

EXERCUTIONS AT DELHI.

At Delhi the rebel Nawab of Jhansi, after undergoing a protracted trial, was hanged on the evening of the 23rd of December. He met his doom with the calmness of a Mussulman fatalist, and the great crowd that was present...

AMERICAN AND COLONIAL ITEMS.

REVOLUTION IN MEXICO.—We have important news from Mexico. General Comonfort, having been abandoned by his troops, left the capital on the 21st ult., embarked on board the Tennessee at Vera Cruz...

REVENUE STATE OF AFFAIRS.

The Journal of Commerce sentimentally remarks on a strange state of affairs in New York:—"The banks glutted with money, the city with flour, and something like one fifth of the population dependent on charity."

ORIGINAL BITTERS, A CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA.

The proprietors do not claim that this medicine is infallible, but refer to abundant proof that they have been remarkably successful.

PASSING COUNTERFEIT MONEY.

No law in America is more strictly enforced than that against passing counterfeit money; yet, some other respectable dealers sell worthless counterfeits of Perry Davis' excellent Pain Killer, thus impeding the afflicted.

The Protector & Christian Witness

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 10, 1855.

POLITICS RATED AT MORE THAN THEIR VALUE.

If one should say that politics, strictly and properly so called, whether viewed as an art or an art itself, would extend and fill of vast importance, no well regulated mind could oppose the sentiment. The British nation has much reason to praise the Sovereign of the Universe, that the science of Government is not despised and cultivated by many of her sons...

MISSIONARY.

On Tuesday evening of the Methodist Church of the Wesleyan Church in the city of London, a meeting was held for the purpose of raising money for the support of the Missionary Society of the Wesleyan Church...

PROTESTANT A.

James Ford, Rev. Prof. King, Vice, Mr. Loyal, P. C. McGregor, James England, John Martin, George Boyd, Mr. J. Foran, C. Robson, Barnes, Blunt, McEwen, S. Bares, Joseph Bell, Mr. T., Rev. J., Mr. G.

PROTESTANT B.

To maintain the doctrine of the Bible, and the principles of true religion, we are bound to maintain the rights of the individual, and to oppose the power of the State...

PROTESTANT C.

To unite the Protestants of all countries, and to secure the recognition of all sound Christian principles, we are bound to maintain the rights of the individual, and to oppose the power of the State...

PROTESTANT D.

To unite the Protestants of all countries, and to secure the recognition of all sound Christian principles, we are bound to maintain the rights of the individual, and to oppose the power of the State...

PROTESTANT E.

To unite the Protestants of all countries, and to secure the recognition of all sound Christian principles, we are bound to maintain the rights of the individual, and to oppose the power of the State...

PROTESTANT F.

To unite the Protestants of all countries, and to secure the recognition of all sound Christian principles, we are bound to maintain the rights of the individual, and to oppose the power of the State...

PROTESTANT G.

To unite the Protestants of all countries, and to secure the recognition of all sound Christian principles, we are bound to maintain the rights of the individual, and to oppose the power of the State...

PROTESTANT H.

To unite the Protestants of all countries, and to secure the recognition of all sound Christian principles, we are bound to maintain the rights of the individual, and to oppose the power of the State...

PROTESTANT I.

To unite the Protestants of all countries, and to secure the recognition of all sound Christian principles, we are bound to maintain the rights of the individual, and to oppose the power of the State...

PROTESTANT J.

To unite the Protestants of all countries, and to secure the recognition of all sound Christian principles, we are bound to maintain the rights of the individual, and to oppose the power of the State...

LAUNCH OF THE LEVIATHAN.

On Sunday, the 31st ult., as the flood relieved the weight upon the launching ways, some of the hydraulic...

SIR COLIN CAMPBELL'S GUIDE.

The London papers publish the narrative of James Cavanagh, who was engaged, as a working field engineer and surveyor, in the construction of the railway...

EXERCUTIONS AT DELHI.

At Delhi the rebel Nawab of Jhansi, after undergoing a protracted trial, was hanged on the evening of the 23rd of December. He met his doom with the calmness of a Mussulman fatalist, and the great crowd that was present...

AMERICAN AND COLONIAL ITEMS.

REVOLUTION IN MEXICO.—We have important news from Mexico. General Comonfort, having been abandoned by his troops, left the capital on the 21st ult., embarked on board the Tennessee at Vera Cruz...

REVENUE STATE OF AFFAIRS.

The Journal of Commerce sentimentally remarks on a strange state of affairs in New York:—"The banks glutted with money, the city with flour, and something like one fifth of the population dependent on charity."

ORIGINAL BITTERS, A CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA.

The proprietors do not claim that this medicine is infallible, but refer to abundant proof that they have been remarkably successful.

PASSING COUNTERFEIT MONEY.

No law in America is more strictly enforced than that against passing counterfeit money; yet, some other respectable dealers sell worthless counterfeits of Perry Davis' excellent Pain Killer, thus impeding the afflicted.

MISSIONARY.

On Tuesday evening of the Methodist Church of the Wesleyan Church in the city of London, a meeting was held for the purpose of raising money for the support of the Missionary Society of the Wesleyan Church...

PROTESTANT A.

James Ford, Rev. Prof. King, Vice, Mr. Loyal, P. C. McGregor, James England, John Martin, George Boyd, Mr. J. Foran, C. Robson, Barnes, Blunt, McEwen, S. Bares, Joseph Bell, Mr. T., Rev. J., Mr. G.

PROTESTANT B.

To maintain the doctrine of the Bible, and the principles of true religion, we are bound to maintain the rights of the individual, and to oppose the power of the State...

PROTESTANT C.

To unite the Protestants of all countries, and to secure the recognition of all sound Christian principles, we are bound to maintain the rights of the individual, and to oppose the power of the State...

PROTESTANT D.

To unite the Protestants of all countries, and to secure the recognition of all sound Christian principles, we are bound to maintain the rights of the individual, and to oppose the power of the State...

PROTESTANT E.

To unite the Protestants of all countries, and to secure the recognition of all sound Christian principles, we are bound to maintain the rights of the individual, and to oppose the power of the State...

THE LAW OF LUCK.

The Law of Luck.—The following is a copy of the Lord Chief Justice Campbell's new bill to amend the law of libel...

SIR COLIN CAMPBELL'S GUIDE.

The London papers publish the narrative of James Cavanagh, who was engaged, as a working field engineer and surveyor, in the construction of the railway...

EXERCUTIONS AT DELHI.

At Delhi the rebel Nawab of Jhansi, after undergoing a protracted trial, was hanged on the evening of the 23rd of December. He met his doom with the calmness of a Mussulman fatalist, and the great crowd that was present...

AMERICAN AND COLONIAL ITEMS.

REVOLUTION IN MEXICO.—We have important news from Mexico. General Comonfort, having been abandoned by his troops, left the capital on the 21st ult., embarked on board the Tennessee at Vera Cruz...

REVENUE STATE OF AFFAIRS.

The Journal of Commerce sentimentally remarks on a strange state of affairs in New York:—"The banks glutted with money, the city with flour, and something like one fifth of the population dependent on charity."

ORIGINAL BITTERS, A CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA.

The proprietors do not claim that this medicine is infallible, but refer to abundant proof that they have been remarkably successful.

PASSING COUNTERFEIT MONEY.

No law in America is more strictly enforced than that against passing counterfeit money; yet, some other respectable dealers sell worthless counterfeits of Perry Davis' excellent Pain Killer, thus impeding the afflicted.

MISSIONARY.

On Tuesday evening of the Methodist Church of the Wesleyan Church in the city of London, a meeting was held for the purpose of raising money for the support of the Missionary Society of the Wesleyan Church...

PROTESTANT A.

James Ford, Rev. Prof. King, Vice, Mr. Loyal, P. C. McGregor, James England, John Martin, George Boyd, Mr. J. Foran, C. Robson, Barnes, Blunt, McEwen, S. Bares, Joseph Bell, Mr. T., Rev. J., Mr. G.

PROTESTANT B.

To maintain the doctrine of the Bible, and the principles of true religion, we are bound to maintain the rights of the individual, and to oppose the power of the State...

PROTESTANT C.

To unite the Protestants of all countries, and to secure the recognition of all sound Christian principles, we are bound to maintain the rights of the individual, and to oppose the power of the State...

PROTESTANT D.

To unite the Protestants of all countries, and to secure the recognition of all sound Christian principles, we are bound to maintain the rights of the individual, and to oppose the power of the State...

PROTESTANT E.

To unite the Protestants of all countries, and to secure the recognition of all sound Christian principles, we are bound to maintain the rights of the individual, and to oppose the power of the State...

PROTESTANT F.

To unite the Protestants of all countries, and to secure the recognition of all sound Christian principles, we are bound to maintain the rights of the individual, and to oppose the power of the State...

PROTESTANT G.

To unite the Protestants of all countries, and to secure the recognition of all sound Christian principles, we are bound to maintain the rights of the individual, and to oppose the power of the State...

PROTESTANT H.

To unite the Protestants of all countries, and to secure the recognition of all sound Christian principles, we are bound to maintain the rights of the individual, and to oppose the power of the State...

The Protector & Christian Witness

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 10, 1855.

POLITICS RATED AT MORE THAN THEIR VALUE.

If one should say that politics, strictly and properly so called, whether viewed as an art or an art itself, would extend and fill of vast importance, no well regulated mind could oppose the sentiment. The British nation has much reason to praise the Sovereign of the Universe, that the science of Government is not despised and cultivated by many of her sons...

MISSIONARY.

On Tuesday evening of the Methodist Church of the Wesleyan Church in the city of London, a meeting was held for the purpose of raising money for the support of the Missionary Society of the Wesleyan Church...

PROTESTANT A.

James Ford, Rev. Prof. King, Vice, Mr. Loyal, P. C. McGregor, James England, John Martin, George Boyd, Mr. J. Foran, C. Robson, Barnes, Blunt, McEwen, S. Bares, Joseph Bell, Mr. T., Rev. J., Mr. G.

PROTESTANT B.

To maintain the doctrine of the Bible, and the principles of true religion, we are bound to maintain the rights of the individual, and to oppose the power of the State...

PROTESTANT C.

To unite the Protestants of all countries, and to secure the recognition of all sound Christian principles, we are bound to maintain the rights of the individual, and to oppose the power of the State...

PROTESTANT D.

To unite the Protestants of all countries, and to secure the recognition of all sound Christian principles, we are bound to maintain the rights of the individual, and to oppose the power of the State...

PROTESTANT E.

To unite the Protestants of all countries, and to secure the recognition of all sound Christian principles, we are bound to maintain the rights of the individual, and to oppose the power of the State...

PROTESTANT F.

To unite the Protestants of all countries, and to secure the recognition of all sound Christian principles, we are bound to maintain the rights of the individual, and to oppose the power of the State...

PROTESTANT G.

To unite the Protestants of all countries, and to secure the recognition of all sound Christian principles, we are bound to maintain the rights of the individual, and to oppose the power of the State...

PROTESTANT H.

To unite the Protestants of all countries, and to secure the recognition of all sound Christian principles, we are bound to maintain the rights of the individual, and to oppose the power of the State...

PROTESTANT I.

To unite the Protestants of all countries, and to secure the recognition of all sound Christian principles, we are bound to maintain the rights of the individual, and to oppose the power of the State...

PROTESTANT J.

To unite the Protestants of all countries, and to secure the recognition of all sound Christian principles, we are bound to maintain the rights of the individual, and to oppose the power of the State...

POOR QUALITY ORIGINAL