HAIR RENEWER

was the first preparation perfectly adapted to cure diseases of the scalp, and the first suc-cessful restorer of faded or gray hair to its natural color, growth, and youthful beauty. It has had many imitators, but none have so fully met all the requirements needful for the proper freatment of the hair and scalp. HALL'S HAS REENEWAR has steadily grown in favor, and spread its fame and usefulness to every quarter of the globe. Its unparal-leied success can be attributed to but one cause: the entire /niffment of its promises. The properietors have often been surprised

The use for a short time of HALL's HAIR RENEWER wonderfully improves the personal appearance. It cleanses the scalp from all impurities, curse all humors, fever, and dryness, and thus prevents baldness. It stimutates the weakened glands, and enables them to push forward a new and vigorous growth. The effects of this article are not

Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Six months ago I was completely covered with a terrible humor and serordalous sores. The humor caused an incessant and intolerable tiching, and the skin cracked so as to cause the blood to flow in many places whenever moved. My sufferings were great, and my life a burden. I commenced the use of the Sansararaltal in April last, and have used it regularly since that time. My condition began to improve at once. The sores have all healed, and I feel perfectly well in every respect — being now able to do a good day's work, although 73 years of ago. Many inquire what has wrought such a cure in my case, and I tell them, as I have here tried to bell you, AYEN'S SARBAPARILLA. Glover, VL., Oct.

he stood in front of it facing the people, the cheers and vivas, which had continued unceasingly from the moment he entered the church, became positively deafening. I was fortunate in having obtained a place very near the throne, and the sight of the dense crowd of people assembled, the cloud of white handkerchiefs they were waving, and as the unrestrained enthusiasm they displayed were most imposing. Shouts of "Viva il Papa Re" were heard on all sides. As soon as silence could be obtained, an address on behalf of the pilgrims was read by Count di Viancino, sides. As soon as silence could be obtained, an address on behalf of the pilgrims was read by Count di Viancino, Prosident of the Turin Committee. In reply, His Holinees, after bearing witness to the imposing character of the recent demonstration on the part of the Italian clergy, expressed his approval of this new manifestation of zeal by the laity, the two pilgrimages constituting a striking proof of the concord existing between the clergy and their flocks. A conspiracy of sects had, he continued, endeavored to reduce the Holy See to a condition unworthy of its rank. The Papacy was not, as was stated, the enemy of Italy. History recorded in indelible characters the fact that it had always been actuated by sovereign benevolence towards the Italian peninsula, as was proved by the researches of learned men. From historical study it would be found that all that is designated good in the social order is reconcilable with the Papacy, and that, in fact, true civilization derives therefrom increased vitality and strength. His Holiness further declared that the hypocritical statements of a desire to relieve the Holy See of temporal that the hypocritical statements of false.

It is worthy of remark that the Moniter of the Vatican, writing on the pilgrimage, notes that the abstention of Catholics from political elections points out all that is contradictory, ahonormal and irregular in the present situation of Catholics from political elections points out all that is contradictory, ahonormal and irregular in the present situation of Catholics from political elections points out all that is contradictory, ahonormal and irregular in the present situation of Catholics from political elections points and irregular in the present situation of Catholics from political elections points out all that is contradictory, ahonormal and irregular in the present situation of Catholics from political elections points out all that is contradictory, ahonormal and irregular in the present situation of Catholics from political elections poi Catholics from political elections points out all that is contradictory, abnormal and irregular in the present situation of Italy. The Catholics are in the majority, and constitute the most sound and honest part of the nation. They possess a marvellous union of moral and material forces, which are inactive in a political sense. Such a situation cannot continue without causing a notable weakness, which will inevitably lead to decay and ruin. "Let official Italy take heed," writes the Moniteur, "so long as, in consultation of the station. The Vice-Regal party, accompanied by the Federal Cabinet, Supreme Court Judges, and other officials who took part in the ceremony at Quebec, arrived at 6.20 p. m., having made the run from Quebec in seven hours, including a half hour's stop at St. Martin's. "Let official Italy take heed," writes the Moniteur, "so long as, in consequence of the position in which the Sovereign Pontiff is placed, the Catholics will remain hostile to the present regime, or will simply remain neutral, and Italy will never have aught else than a factitious and artificial life.

An infusion of generous blood is necessary to combat effectively the revolutionary virus, and to restore to this weak and bloodless body its former vigorous splendor.

Let Italy do justice to the just claims of the Holy See, and Catholics will joyfully bring to her the assistance of every energy and of all their devotedness."
