Despatches to the Evening Mercury.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

London, April 8th.—It is reported that Lord Cranborne has been offered the Governor-Generalship of Canada, and Earl Mayo that of India.
Lord Fitzgerald, Lord Justice of Court of Appeals in Ireland, is said to be on the point of resigning his office.
The Irish Anglican Hierarchy will soon renege on the Queen against any change in the Established Church in Ireland. Deeds of violence daily occur in Cork. The Grand Jury have brought in bills of indictment against all the prisoners, except O'Neil, who were charged by the Coroner's Jury with complicity in the Clerkenwell outrage. The trials will commence next week.
All doubts of the safety of Dr Livingstone, the African explorer, are now dispelled. Sir Roderick Murchison to-day received a letter from the distinguished traveller, which came by the way of Zanzibar. Dr Livingstone writes that he is in good health, that his journey of exploration has been successful, and that he will soon return to England.

American Despatches.

Chicago, April 8.—In the billiard match between McDevitt and Foster, for the championship of the U. S., in the 54th inning McDevitt ran 200. The score then stood—Foster 103; McDevitt 845. When Foster had made 1242 points, McDevitt then took the cue and went from about 950 to 1243, with all the balls close together, when Foster claimed a foul and threw down his cue, refusing to continue the game. The referee then decided the game in favor of McDevitt.
New York, April 9.—Officer Jas. Grim, of the Canadian Frontier Police, arrived here from Fort Columbus yesterday, having in his possession a prisoner named John Hoag, who is charged with having committed an atrocious murder and robbery in the city of Toronto in February last. They started for Buffalo last night.
New York, April 9th.—World's Detroit special says the majority against negro suffrage in Michigan is over 30,000.

Strange Suicide in Ottawa

One Dent, an Englishman, shot himself dead on Wednesday morning about eight o'clock, but whether accidentally or purposely is not yet officially determined. Deceased was a grey-haired man of nearly sixty. He was in quite poor circumstances, and lived with his daughter and son-in-law on Ashburnham Hill, straight south of the Parliament buildings. A prevailing rumour is to the effect that he committed suicide, on account of being, somehow or other, implicated in the murder of Mr. McGee. What we have heard from the nearest neighbours seems altogether opposed to such a conclusion. He was night watch at the Parliament buildings, but got discharged two weeks ago for drinking. He was working the day before at a job of hauling for a neighbour. He had drunk hard on Tuesday night, and also on Wednesday morning. His body presented a terrible sight. The whole of the face was blown off, and the brains were cleanly scooped out of the skull. From the position of the ramrod, also of a rude instrument for gun cleaning, and other circumstances, it seems clear that he must have cleaned the gun first, and then loaded it with an enormous heavy charge of shot. The verdict of the coroner's jury was to the effect that he did so under temporary insanity from drink.

DEATH OF MIKE MURPHY.

It is a very singular circumstance that on the very day that Mr. McGee was martyred for his adherence to law, order and country, Mike Murphy, of Toronto, the father of Fenians in Canada, should have been on his death-bed, an exile, at Buffalo. It will be recalled that he and some companions were arrested on the Grand Trunk Railway, on their way to Lower Canada, to assist the Fenian movements. They were found armed with weapons, and plenty of proof was at hand to convict them of treasonable conspiracy, ransack and plunder. They were committed to Cornwall Jail, but after lying there eventually escaped by digging a hole under the wall, and making for the river got into a boat that was waiting, and gained the American shore. For some time after he arrived in Buffalo he attained a little notoriety, but at last fell into that despicable obscurity that befalls those who conspire to betray their country's cause. Latterly he kept a little grocery, and died at 38 Exchange street, on Monday night. Thus, one Irishman clinging to the fortunes of his adopted land, died a martyr to its cause; and a nation's tears bedew the spot on which his mangled remains fell; the other seeking to introduce a horde of foreign outlaws to overthrow the Government and carry weeping and wailing a jockeys' far. The box in which she travels is literally covered with express tags and remarks, such as "one more unfortunate," "properly hen-closed," &c., to which something new is added at each office through which she passes. A bag of corn is suspended from her travelling apparatus; she has the liberty of the offices for exercise, and seems good for another six months.
The Provincial Government offer a reward of $500 for the apprehension of the murderers of Sykes, the drover on the Grand Trunk Railway.

Guelph Markets.
MERCURY OFFICE, GUELPH,
April 9, 1868.
The rough weather for the past few days rendering farming operations impossible has contributed to make the market somewhat more lively, though the deliveries even yet are but small. The average receipts of wheat are not more than 500 bushels daily, and there is but little alteration in price. Spring wheat is quoted a little easier than last week, and oats keep at the same figure. Barley is lower, and buyers do not seem to be so keen in their demands for it. Peas have also fallen five cents a bushel. Eggs are plentifully supplied at 11c a dozen.
