

John A's. Ballying.
Referring to John A's. "braving" and bullying propensities, the Globe calls to mind a little incident that occurred on the floor of the House some years ago. This is not the first time that this ideal Canadian gentleman has acted in a similar fashion. We referred a few days ago to a scene in the old Assembly, which we think even Sir John will scarcely remember without a blush. As our Premier can only be paralled by himself, we may be excused for giving the former escapee with greater fullness than would otherwise be necessary. In a debate the present Vice-Chancellor Mowat, then member for South Ontario, delivered a speech severe and damaging from its very moderation and gentleness. It stung John A. to the quick. And that paragon of "sweetness and light" crossed the floor of the House, put himself into a threatening attitude, and addressed his fellow-member with the choice words: "You d—d pup, I've a good mind to slap your chops." The Tory had been scraped a little, and peeped the ruffian, just as in the present instance and in many others of a more private character. The friends of John A. urged that he was drunk on that occasion, and no doubt the more sensible of them will plead the same excuse for this recent escapade. But it was not so. He was not drunk when he spoke thus to Mr. Mowat, and we have no evidence to that effect. The apology would be frightful, and no avail. A gentleman will be a gentleman even when he is drunk. If ruffianism is not in the man it will not come out in any circumstances. The Globe writes in an old phrase, but it is true as it is old. If a man finds that when drunk he becomes an insolent swearing rowdy, he may be sure that such is his true character. It is nature asserting its supremacy over all conventionality. Let Sir John and his apologists take any alternative they like. If sober, his conduct was that of a vulgar ruffian. If drunk, it was but that of the Tartar showing through the Russian's skin.

DR. WHEELER'S COMPOUND ELIXIR OF ROSHARIS AND CALASAYA. — This elegant and agreeable preparation has specially been a favorite on account of its great reliability in the cure of Diseases of the Stomach, Liver and Kidneys. It relieves at once, pain and a sense of fullness after eating, distention, acidity, or heartburn, headaches, and constipation of the bowels, all of which arise from feeble digestion, and causes poor blood. It enables the stomach to digest food perfectly, and in sufficient quantity to nourish the system thoroughly, and prevent decline, and running down with chronic wasting diseases. In consumption and scrofulous cases, in women prostrate from family cares, and in delicate children, it will act like a charm in restoring vitality to all the organs and invigorating the general health. It will restore all those who for a long time have been in a feeble condition of the system, wanting energy and disposition to exertion. It cures by means of purifying the blood, and building up the tissues of the body. Sold at $1 by all Druggists.

IT IS A FACT—That the Great Shoeshoer's Ointment and Pills exercise most wonderful powers in promoting appetite, improving digestion, regulating the bowels, and removing nervousness and debility. The weakest will take no harm from the use of this great Indian Alterative and Tonic health, but will gradually regain their health, and the strength of the muscles in which they are weakened, and the freshness of results often betray them. Long suffering invalids may look toward this rectifying and revivifying medicine with certain hope of having their maladies mitigated, if not cured by its aid.
