Topics of Today.

It is stated that the Dominion Government has ordered an investigation by Inspector Sweatman into the charges that before the last general elections large quantities of Conservative newspapers and campaign literature were forwarded free through the Quebec postoffice, while the Liberal papers were denied the same privilege, besides being detained or diverted into wrong directions.

When the Duke of Argyll dies the Princess Louise will be Duchess of Argyll, the Marquis of Lorne being heir to the dukedom.

The Dominion Parliament rose today. The extraordinary session, necessitated by the bungling of the late Government, has lasted seven weeks.

Many of the Conservatives in the Senate take little interest in their work. They cleared out of Ottawa in so great numbers, that Sir Oliver Mowat, leader of the Government, had to plead with the members to remain a quorum of 15 to pass the supply bill. He had difficulty in securing the number. This out of a membership of 781.

Toronto Saturday Night says: "About Mr. Dixon, the stamp man, have we not had a little too much weeping? Mr. Dixon has been leading a triple life—he has been stamp vendor, junior partner in the great fur firm of Gillespie, Ansley & Dixon and the Rev. H. C. Dixon. We have heard of a man leading a double life, but here is a triple liver. For years the firm to which he belongs has had a monopoly of the fur contracts of the Government, and he cannot complain very well. Suppose that Rev. Father McCann had held this stamp job—Weigh!!!"

The convention of Liberals called for Souris, Manitoba, to elect a candidate to succeed Mr. D'Alton McCarthy, has been postponed till the 20th October, by which date it is expected Attorney-General Sifton will have been sworn in Minister of the Interior.

Mr. Thomas A. Wardell, mayor of Dundas, was nominated by the North Wentworth Conservatives for the Local House.

Evolution in Sight.

Pacific Settlement of the Eastern Trouble Seems Probable.

The Queen Bids Goodbye to the Czar and Czarina.

A Squadron Will Convey Them to France.

Roumania and Greece Have Joined the Dreibund—Servia Expected to Come In.

TYNAN NOT LIBERATED. 6. London, Oct. 5.—The United Associated Press is in a position to state that the report circulated that Patrick J. Tynan, the alleged dynamite, had been released by the French authorities, and that he was on his way to the United States, is absolutely without foundation. It is believed that nothing will be done in Tynan's case until after the Czar leaves France.

EXPLOSION AT BULWAGOY. London, Oct. 5.—A powder magazine exploded at Bulwago Saturday. One white man and nine blacks were killed, and 32 persons were injured. The magazine was located on the outskirts of the town. The greater part of the explosives was intended for use in mining operations, and consisted of 88 cases of blasting gelatine, 725 cases of dynamite and 4,000 boxes of detonators. The explosion is ascribed to the shooting on the part of sportsmen, and that a bullet struck one of the detonators. The wreckage caused by the explosion was immense.

PETROLEUM MACHINES AHEAD. Paris, Oct. 5.—Out of 38 automobiles, of which number 36 were petroleum machines, started in a race on Sept. 24 from this city to Marseilles and back, a total distance of 1,692 kilometers, only eleven completed the round trip, reaching here Saturday afternoon. All the machines finishing were petroleum driven. Michellin's motorcycle Arrest completed the trip in 72 hours' actual running time. There was no running at night, for machines which reached Paris at a spanking pace, and all were in good order in spite of the terrible weather experienced.

THE PORTE'S CHANGE OF POLICY. The Constantinople correspondent of the Times telegraphs that there is every indication of a renunciation of a conciliatory policy on the part of the Porte towards the Armenians. The arrest and expulsion of members of the lower orders continues, though they are not so frequent as they were formerly. The arrests, however, now extend to bankers and other wealthy Armenians. The Cologne Gazette prints a dispatch from Constantinople saying that in consequence of the warnings conveyed by the Porte by Baron Von Zaunma Jeltsch, the Russian ambassador, the Sultan has countermanded the order for the wholesale arrest and expulsion of Armenians.

EXTRAORDINARY REVULSION OF OPINION. London, Oct. 5.—An extraordinary change has come over public opinion of the Turkish question, and the outlook is regarded as more hopeful. The acrimonious tone of the Russian press has changed to an inconceivable extent towards England. This is believed to be due to hints from official quarters that the dead set against England must be abandoned. Although there have been no hostile pronouncements, the impression prevails that the agreement between the Czar and Lord Salisbury has been productive of good results. Suspensions have been cleared away and friendly feeling restored. The Crimean war, the Berlin treaty and the Cyprus convention have forgotten as belonging to another age.

PACIFIC SETTLEMENT PROBABLE. London, Oct. 5.—There is a growing disposition at Berlin to regard the solution of the Turkish question as being on the eve of completion by an amicable agreement among the great powers, and it is taken for granted that all likelihood of a partition of Turkey in the near future has vanished. A dispatch from Vienna confirms the report that the powers have agreed upon a pacific settlement of the eastern question, honorable to all the parties concerned, and amply guaranteeing the future security of the Armenians. The dispatch adds that the leading feature of the agreement is the formation of a Christian zone on the basis of Jewish pale in Russia, in which security of life and property will be assured, and the Armenians by all the powers or some of them; any necessary active operations to be undertaken by Great Britain, France and Russia and perhaps Italy.

JOINED THE DREIBUND. Berlin, Oct. 5.—The sensational news that Roumania and Greece have joined the Dreibund and that the formal agreements to this effect were signed at Bucharest during the presence there of Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria after the opening of the canal through the iron gates of the Danube, is being discussed in political circles here. The statements made are believed to be of prime importance, for the Dreibund will thus have valuable allies in these two countries in the event of the disruption of Turkey or any serious complications in the east. King Charles of Roumania has long been anxious to join the Dreibund, but it was only lately that a bargain, acceptable to all parties, was drawn up. It is expected that Servia will also adhere to the Dreibund as soon as the influence of ex-Queen Natalia, who is a Russophile, is overcome.

"GOOD-BYE"

The Queen Bids Adieu to the Czar and Czarina.

London, Oct. 5.—The departure of the Czar and Czarina from Balmoral Castle was made an occasion of great ceremony. The Queen accompanied her departing guests to the door of the castle, where she bade them an affectionate farewell, and wished them good-speed. The Scots Greys, of which regiment the Czar is honorary colonel, acted as a guard of honor during the visit, and were at night present to escort the Czar and his Majesty to Balmoral, the railway station for Balmoral, where a special train was in waiting to convey them to Portsmouth. The coaches were sumptuously furnished and contained every convenience to make the long journey as comfortable as possible. Bonfires were lit at the imperial party and their escorts started in carriages for Balmoral. The procession was headed by the Balmoral men, the employees of the Queen's estate, attired in kilts and feathered bonnets, and the Balmoral and Craithie volunteers, all bearing lighted torches. The special train arrived at Portsmouth from Balmoral at 5:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Everything was in readiness here for their departure for Cherbourg. The many warships and other vessels in the harbor were handsomely dressed in honor of the occasion, and the jetty was a mass of bunting. A large detachment of troops was present to act as a guard of honor, and when the Czar and Czarina appeared the military bands played the Russian National Anthem, George J. Goschen, First Lord of the Admiralty, and a large number of high naval officers were present on the platform when the train arrived. The Duke of Connaught, who accompanied the imperial party from Balmoral, presented the naval officers and other officials to the Czar and Czarina. After a short delay at the station, the party boarded the Russian imperial yacht "Polestar." As they went on board the star of the warships in the harbor fired a royal salute. The Czar has instructed M. De Staal, the Russian ambassador to Great Britain, to express to the public his pleasure at the hearty reception that had every-where been extended to him during his visit. It was the original intention of the Czar to leave Portsmouth last night and arrive at Cherbourg at about 10 o'clock in the morning, but his sailing was deferred until seven o'clock this morning, and he will not arrive in France until about two o'clock in the afternoon.

Parliament.

Scene on the Opposition Benches on Saturday.

Dirty Linen Washing Among Conservative M. P.'s.

Premier Laurier on the Future of the Northwest.

Ottawa, Oct. 5.—Just before the House of Commons rose on Saturday morning, the proceedings were enlivened by a spirited passage between two members of the Opposition, Mr. Wallace and Mr. Bergeron. The latter made a plea on behalf of acting Collector of Customs O'Hara, of Montreal, who claims to be entitled to the position of the collector during the time that he has discharged the duties of the office. Mr. Wallace strongly opposed the claim.
