Cory Stories From Shanghai

Rivers of Blood Inside the Forts at Taku.

Incredible Tales of the Murder of the Emperor and Suicide of the Dowager Empress—Less Sensational Reports Say the British Admiral Has Reached Peking and That the Legations Are Safe—Rebellion Spreading Far and Wide.

London, Thursday, June 21, 3:50 a.m.

The latest story sent out by the Shanghai gossips is that Prince Tuan, president of the Tsung Li Yamen, has burned the Imperial palace at Peking and murdered the emperor, and that the empress dowager has committed suicide.

The effect of the bombardment of the Taku forts, as described by the Shanghai correspondent, was gory in the extreme—nothing less than "rivers of blood" and "mutilated corpses" piled up inside the forts. The Russians guarding Tien Tsin, according to another report, fired artillery and rifles on June 15, at a range of 50 yards, into dense crowds of attacking Boxers, and killed 300.

THE LEGATIONS SAFE.

The reports of Admiral Seymour's arrival at Peking and of the safety of the foreign legations, originating from Chinese sources and cabined to this city from Shanghai, are still unverified. However, the Italian consul at Shanghai has wired to the Italian foreign minister, Marquis Visconti-Venosta, that the legations are safe. The rebellion spreading far and wide. There is an impression in diplomatic circles here and on the continent that the allies have not yet grappled with the situation effectively and that even 50,000 troops would be powerless to do much to control 4,000,000 square miles.

Japan, according to a dispatch to the Daily Mail from Yokohama, intends to land an expedition to Foo Chow.

MISSIONARIES SAFE.

Telegrams from Tien Tsin, dated June 15, say that the foreign missionaries at Pao Ting Pu are safe, being guarded by the troops of Gen. Nieh. Twenty-five Americans, with a Gailing gun have arrived.

In the foreign settlement the chapels have been burned and the mission stations of the American board of foreign missions, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and of the London Missionary Society are practically in the hands of the Boxers. The local authorities are paralyzed. Sympathetic missionaries are ordered into sedan chairs and compelled to "koto" to the Boxers in the streets. All foreign servants are deserting their masters.

The United States gunboat Monocacy, the Russian battleship Navarin, and the French cruiser Pascal have arrived. The German protected cruiser Kaiserin Augusta has departed for Taku.

AT CANTON.

A Hong Kong dispatch says: The Chinese expect trouble at Canton on the departure of Li Hung Chang for Peking.

It is rumored that the forts have received orders to fire on any foreign warships attempting to pass. A gunboat is kept under steam in case of emergency. There is no warship at Canton.

THE RUSSIANS.

The Berliner Tageblatt says a private dispatch from St. Petersburg asserts that Russia has landed 9,000 men, who will not place themselves under the command of Admiral Seymour, but will act independently.

SEYMOUR'S MARCH.

A news agency dispatch from Shanghai, dated June 20, says: "After an arduous march and frequent fighting with the Chinese, Vice-Admiral Seymour arrived at Peking on Sunday afternoon. On five occasions the Chinese attacked the column in great force. There were many mounted men among the Chinese, but most of the natives were badly armed. At times they fought with admirable courage and bravery. The losses of the Chinese during the march are estimated at

FIVE HUNDRED KILLED.

The losses of the foreigners were trifling.

The exact state of affairs inside Peking it is impossible to describe, in view of the many conflicting reports, nothing having been received from the legations or foreigners there.

It is learned authentically that an understanding exists between Great Britain and the viceroys of Kankin and Wu Chang, which accounts for the quickness in the Yang Tse Kiang Valley.
