Bosses at Recent Windsor Meet Make Clean-Up As Result of Queer Work.

FOUR JOCKEYS ARE OFF

4. C. Yeager Ruled Off Tracks for Heavy Betting on Frameup Race.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 31.—The cleanp made by Judges C. F. Price and Francis Nelson, following the recent meeting at Windsor under the auspices of the Windsor Driving Association, has proven to be the greatest ever known on the American turf.

Four jockeys, a notorious colored est owners now racing in Canada, have been suspended, and it is up to the Canadian Racing Association whether or not they ever race again. Besides the above, S. A. Clopton, an owner, and J. C. Yeager, well-known their defeat. operator, are under investigation by the judges.

The "sure thing" men have been working rather strongly on the Cana-Sullivan r.f., Clark p. dian circuit this season, and it was not until Judge Price brought to Windsor by Mr. Hendrie to officiate, that any notice was taken of the matters as they stood.

Pease's Ride Starts It.

The first ride that looked suspicious to the officials was that put up by Jockey Pease on the mare Woodlane, who under a most listless ride at his hands finished second, when the judge thought that she was good enough to A POPULAR SPORTSMAN

Nothing was done in this matter, as they bided their time and waited to catch the culprits with the goods on them a few days later, when Caper Sauce was deliberately pulled by Pease, for which he was suspend-

The next evidence against Chinn was laid by Jockey Goldstein, who said that one J. Henry, a rider, had approached him and said that Phil Chinn would pay him $100 to pull Teddy Bear, which horse he was riding, to let Elmeta Hamilton win. Goldstein would not agree to this, and on the way to the post Jockey Henry increased his offer to $200, but Goldstein still refused. Teddy Bear, in the opinion of the judges, ran a to the Tecumsehs of Toronto, the Starter, E. A. Sovereign, physical digood race, although he was beaten. Goldstein made an affidavit to this, and further added that when he arrived here at the request of C. F. Price, he was met by Henry, who told him to stand "pat."

Pease Had a Chance.

Pease was still given a chance, and all that he had to say was that the only one that ever asked him to pull a horse was W. A. Burttschel. The latter denied it, and the judge stated there was nothing against him, so Dougall. that Pease and Henry were suspended.

Chinn was given a chance to exonerate himself with an affidavit, but would not do so.

IST. JOHNS AND YOUNGS |LAPORTE ILLUSTRATES THE UPS | CUBS WIN BOTH AND DOWNS OF A BALL PLAYER

FRANK LAPORTE, A SECOND RATER LAST YEAR AND A STAR NOW. Hughey Jennings or some other equally famous teacher of baseball as t should be played, once remarked, sententiously, that a ball player is a dub one day, a star the next, and forgotten the next. Jennings had the right dope all right, as instance the case of Frank Laporte, the husky young athlete who is third basing for the New York Americans.

Laporte began last season with the Boston Speed Boys, was found wanting and went to New York in a trade. With the Yankees he didn't set the world on fire, and frequently he heard the faint but distinct rumbling of the can coming in his direction. But he managed to stick the season out. Laporte wasn't banked on for much this season when Stallings and Hal Chase began working with the team down south, but he fooled the wise ones. They stuck him on third base and the way he played that bag was a revelation, albeit a pleasant one. He has been on third base practically all season and is really one of the stars of the American League. His batting and fielding have done as much as any other one man's play to keep the Highlanders in the race and Laporte now is an idol of the bugs who this time last year had more trouble seeing him than the wise astronomers had seeing Hon. Halley's comet.
