HAY MARKET IS RATHER FLAT NOW

Some Sold as Low as S11 a Ton On Square Today.

As a result of the big supply the market is rather flat. About 20 loads were delivered this morning. Most of the hay was of poor quality, and some went as low as $11 a ton. Hay of good quality sold as high as $15 a ton.

The market for straw is also rather weak. Three loads were sold this morning.

ong from $6 to $7 a ton.
Oats continue to decline steadily, and this morning were selling around $1 10 a cwt. Quotations now range from 1 08 to $1 15 a cwt. Following are quotations

Be Buried on Saturday.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Toronto, June 8.—A public funeral of the late Goldwin Smith will be held on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 from Convention Hall. While the deceased expressed a desire for a private funeral, the executors decided in view of the universal demand for an opportunity to pay tribute to an eminent man, that a pay tribute to an eminent man, that a public funeral should be held. On Fri-day the remains will lie in state at The Grange, when the general public will be given an opportunity of taking a last look at the familiar face. The casket is of the same design as those used for state funerals, solid mahogany with oxidized sliver mountings. The will of the deceased has not yet been probated, but it is a short document in which Mr. Smith's bequest to the city of The Grange is confirmed. He had a magnificent library of some 15,000 volumes which it is believed are left to Cornell University,
