THE WESTERN FAIR,

The Issue Between its Supporters and Opponents.

A POPULAR VOTE DECLINED.

Are the Fair Prometers Afraid of the People?

The position of Aidermen Moore, Vining, and the other opponents of the Fair grant, is undoubtedly of the seundest promiser that such popular vote night be taken for the polls on the question. They care the polls on the question. They care to make the polls on the question. They care to make the polls on the question. They care to make the polls on the question. Mr. Schriber made an appropriate reply, and a pleasant time was passed by all. jects. This offer was done in writing in the form of an Agreement, by Mr. W. R. Meredith, and submitted to the representatives of the Fair Board, but they refused to extertain it. Upon which Mr. Meredith had no hesitation in voting against the Bill in Committee. The proposition made was a reasonable and just one. Its object was to let the people judge as to the propriety of the expenditure; the object of the legislation introdued, backed by a snatch majority in the Council, is to force it through, while denying the people the opportunity of such expansion.
