"There is no snap in the flour trade," said a well-known dealer to-day. "In fact there has not been any all summer. The millers are putting too much stuff on the market and there's the kernel of the situation." 'I think we will have a good sale for all of our "I think we will have a good sale for all of our bariey which will pass for malting purposes," said a barley broker to-day. "We will have an American demand for it. This duty is a big obstruction, but the Americans will take our barley and pay the duty. I have sold lots of barley to brewers across the line and they have invariably paid the duty. The demand for good Canadian barley will be all the better from the fact that the western production will not more than supply western demands. As I say there will be a demand for all good Canadian barley, and I think Mr. Matthews' statement yesterday on the, barley situation just a triffe strong." BRITISH.

today. Northwest Land was still strang, advancing another point over yesterday's close, transactions taking place at 79½. The attention of investors was pretty well divided, Commerce, Incandescent Light, Commercial Cable, London and Canadian Loan, Toronto, Western Assurance, Dominion Telegraph and Manitoba Loan all getting a share of it. There was a better feeling throughout the list, sellers making no concessions, and in most of the lines holding for higher figures. Quotations are:
