The Ontario Hockey Association Executiv Committee Getting Ready For the Opening of the Season.

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the Ontario Hockey Association was held last evening in the Queen's Hotel, President Warren in the chair. The admission of new clubs was discussed. Earrie, Orillia and clubs was discussed. Barrie, Orillia and Newmarket want to form a northern district. It was decided to invite all intending members, both senior and junior, to hand in their fees of mem bership before Dec. 21, as a guarantee of good faith. Then the ties will be made out for the home-and-home matches in the preliminary rounds by the special committee appointed last night, consisting of Messrs, Hugh Hartshorn, J.S. Garvin and J.H. Laurie. The junior competition for the Cosby Cup will be conducted on the same lines as the senior. Clubs having both senior and junior sevens will be simply taxed an additional fee. A junior is defined as one who has played in less than two senior matches.

who has played in less than two senior matches.

Up in Huron-street they practice English hockey, and when the ice arrives the Victorias will be in prime condition, and only will need a little exercise on skates to be in championship form. The Vics think they will down the Granites this season, sure.

Queen's Own hockevists participated in hockey on the drill shed floor last night. There was a fair turnout.

The Thistle Hockey Club will hold a meeting to-night at 236 Huron-street, at 80'clock, A meeting of the committee of the Toronto Junior Hockey League was held last night for the purpose of arranging the games for the season, but a postponement was thought necessary to await the appearance of the Ontario ties.

The New Zealand Rugby Football Union will send a football team to England, Ireland and Scotland next year and, if possible, arrangements will be made to take an American tour on their way home.

Toronto Bicycle Club members last night discussed: "Club life is advantageous to young men." Messrs. Robins and Cox for affirmative and Schulte and Pease for the negative, with C. Langley in the chair and Wilcox, Dent and Gregg as the jury were the principal characters. The affirmative side wop. W. Milne will be the chairman at the next meeting and will announce the subject the night of the debate to elicit imprompta speeches, The Torontos will attend the Wanderers' smoker to-night.

The Athenaeum Cycling Club will hold tend the Wanderers' smoker to-night.

The Athenseum Cycling Club will hold their first ball and at home in their club building on Friday, Jan. 6. Extensive preparation is being made, and altogether it promises to be a high class event. The number of tickets is limited and are already being rapidly taken un. No pains will be spared to make it a brilliant success.

CAN THE SECTS UNITE?

Interesting Discussion at the Toronto Ministerial Association's Meeting. The subject of discussion at yesterday's meeting of the Toronto Ministerial Association was "Denominational Unity; Can We Secure it for Canada?"

Rev. John Burton of Northern Congregational Church read an able paper on the subject. He took an optimistic view of the question, and stated that the basis of unity must be loyalty to the personality of Christ. Proselytism must cease, and federation of churches for general work was suggested.

Rev. J. A. Turnbull thought that organic union was both undesirable and unattainable. It would place too much power in the hands of one man or of a majority.

Rev. G. M. Milligan said that union in essential faith was possible, but uniformity of creed was not desirable.

The debate was participated in by Bishop Campbell, Rev. O. Wallace, Rev. J. F. German, Rev. H. R. Keats, Rev. Stuart Acheson and Rev. D. J. Macdonnell, all of whom were hopeful of spiritual unity, but pessimistic as to uniformity of creed. It was their opinion that Cauada enjoyed a larger share of unity and Christian tolerance than any other country.

An invitation had been extended to the share of unity and Christian tolerance than any other country.

An invitation had been extended to the Clerical Association to be present and take part in the discussion of Mr. Burton's paper, which they had to decline owing to a previous engagement. They advised the association that they would be pleased to meet them early in January.

At the close of the proceedings a motion was carried instructing the secretary to inform the Clerical Association that Jan. 22 would be a suitable date for the joint consideration of the subject of denominational unity, and the president and secretary were instructed to make the necessary arrangements. Rev. James Grant will introduce the subject on that occasion, and the conference will be looked forward to with great interest, as there is a feeling among Methodists and Presbyterians that they at least could unite, as they are very near together in Canada.

A Toronto Firm's Success.

It may not be generally known in Toronto that the publishing firm of Messrs. Suckling & Sons opened a branch of their flourishing business in Montreal last September. They were prepared to make a success of their venture, but had no idea that their enterprise would result in such a great success as that which they have achieved. They are now going on a step further and are opening auther branch in Detroit for the purpose of publishing for the American market and wholessaling only. This departure, coupled with the previous one, will take from Toronto musical people a young gentleman who will be greatly missed. Mr. I. E.
