

ROBERTS'S

World of Romance.
The Cheapest Work ever Published in this Country.

The Subscriber will issue weekly from the Press of the Boston Daily Times, and Boston. Notion, a publication of the above title, in eight monthly folio pages, each page being half the size of the Boston Notion.

Each sheet will contain one volume of a Novel, of the ordinary octavo size, and will form a series of with which desirable ancient works as are not to be obtained at the bookstalls. Arrangements having been made in London to secure the earliest reception of new books, the re-publication will be the first in this country.

The cheapness with which books can in this manner be afforded, renders it an object for booksellers and others to give their orders early, as the edition will be limited, at first, to

and many persons will desire to secure and bind the year's Volume which will be equal to Twenty-five Octavo Volumes.

For Four Dollars. These copies of valuable works may be obtained for a trifle more than paid to circulating Libraries merely for one person.

The sheet will be printed in handsome style—with a folio and running head to each page, wide margin and good registers, thus rendering it fit to preserve for binding at the expiration of each year.

TERMS.
Four Dollars per annum—Two Dollars and a half for six months. Three copies for Ten Dollars—Five copies for Sixteen Dollars—Ten copies for Thirty Dollars per annum. No discount will be made for less than three papers.

Subscribers in the city can have the work left at their residences or stores every Thursday forenoon.

Postmasters and Booksellers throughout the country are authorized to act as agents, on the terms specified.

Copies will be sent single at the Counting Room, No. 7, State Street, for ten cents each, and will be furnished to orders for eight dollars per hundred, payable in advance.

All the carriers of the Times and Notion can be supplied with any number of copies they may want, on the above terms.

Not a copy will be sent from the office before the money is received for it, as the publisher is determined his circulation shall be entirely upon the cash principle.

The first number will be published on Thursday morning, Nov. 23 and the publication will be continued every Thursday thereafter.

The regular subscribers will be supplied during the term of their subscription, with any number which may be possible to procure.

ESSENCE OF SMOKE.

FORMERLY manufactured at the Chemical Works, Hampton, by Mr. C. Riley, now by the subscriber, who prepares it equal to its former merits—its wonderful virtues in the preservation of Manufactured Fish, together with the economy, simplicity, and expedition in applying it, have caused it to be the most indispensable article in every respectable family in the Province.

Boat, Pork, Mutton, Fish, &c. may be preserved for any length of time by simply washing them with this Essence of Smoke, & then drying them up to dry. It is very large, repeat the process three times, allowing 24 hours to elapse between each washing. Shortly after, upon examination it will be found that the Essence has penetrated through every part of their substance, imparting a most delicious flavor.

N.B.—Apply the Essence of smoke to the meat or Fish, &c. when it is moist, as the liquid does not penetrate so effectually when the surfaces of the substances are dry.

The Curative properties of the Essence of smoke are not less remarkable than those of its Antiseptic—It is now extensively used in the cure of the following Diseases and Accidents, which are incident to Horses and Cattle, viz. wounds, bruises, galling or chafing of the harness, swellings of every kind, sprains, sore backs, broken knees, wind gallo, blood spavins, and inflammation of every description.

For the cure of these diseases it is applied warm rubbing it in well with the hand. From a gilt to a pint of Essence of smoke, each containing one of the largest, strongest, best &c. &c.

Farriers, Proprietors of coaches, cartmen and stage drivers would do well to have it constantly on hand in their stables.

Sold in every Town and Village in the Province by respectable Merchants and Trades, at Five Shillings per Gallon.

Hampton, E. C. Nov. 7, 1839.

Sold by Mr. T. J. T. St. Andrews, Messrs J. & J. Alexander, T. Walker & son, Messrs Peters & Tilly, G. Chadwick, J. & J. Reed, and at the Circulating Library, St. John, by Mr. James F. Gale, Fredericton.

BOSTON NOTION.

THE LARGEST AND CHEAPEST NEWSPAPER IN THE WORLD.

The spirit of the age is utilitarian. Improvement is stamped upon the face of everything. All the useful arts are progressing with unexampled rapidity, and the art of printing is coming in for its full share of the common improvement. Determined not to be outdone in any thing that pertains to the profession, where there is a fair chance for exertion and enterprise, the undersigned has determined upon issuing a sheet TWICE the size of the Boston Weekly Times, (and to take the place of that paper) and will contain eight columns more matter than the Boston Weekly Times. This sheet will be called the BOSTON NOTION, and it is determined that it shall fully sustain a cognomen so full of meaning, and so interwoven with the established character of our Yankee City. It will be the LARGEST NEWSPAPER IN THE WORLD—with no exception—and will be printed on a sheet thirty-seven by fifty-two inches. It will be entirely filled with reading matter and will contain three thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight square inches, or twenty-seven square feet of print in fine type and a single number will contain more reading than an ordinary book of three hundred pages. These great dimensions will be maintained in every page, and upon the new popular periodicals and magazines of the day both American and Foreign, and as the selections will be made with great care, it is believed this paper will be a welcome ADDITION to every family. Besides a full synopsis of the current news of the day (as published in the Boston Daily Times) it will contain Poetry, Popular Tales, Theological Criticisms, Police and other Court Reports, Humorous articles, &c. &c.

The selectest kind of literature will be recommended to the Police Court through all the regions of reason, poetry, romance, wit, and the ample record of folly, we shall glean from the past and present, and from all causes, to present as pleasing and useful a combination of recorded thought and current history, as the world can produce. This is our BOSTON NOTION.

The great amount of wisdom and fun—of wit and philosophy—of morality and antiquities we are enabled to offer weekly for SIX CENTS per copy—only six cents—and we can do it, because of the facilities of our press and office, and the concentration of daily and weekly publications. For THREE DOLLARS we can send a year's volume, equal in quantity of matter, with every variety also to FIFTY-TWO volumes of Novels such as are sent from the press at the date. Fifty-two large volumes for THREE DOLLARS! Effected all by improved machinery, and by a determination that we will not be outdone in enterprise and usefulness.

THREE DOLLARS a year, ALWAYS IN ADVANCE. No orders, no matter from what source, will be attended to, unless accompanied by the cash. Single copies, six cents each.

Postmasters or others, desiring TWENTY DOLLARS shall have EIGHT copies sent to such person and places at they may designate. Mail subscribers will have their papers deposited in the Post Office in this city every Saturday evening.
