

---

Spoke to him with fullest meaning.
"Go," it said, "back to your people,
"Since your task is not accomplished.
"To your people I will send you,
"You shall be a chief among them,
"Ruling them with love and wisdom.
"For great purposes I made you—
"These, my messenger shall shew you
"When he gives you back your body,
"So that you may guide your people,
"So that you may lead them with you,
"Safely to the Happy Island.
"Go, but leave your Wabose with me ;
"She shall wait your second coming,
"Always young and always faithful,
"Young and fair as when I called her
"From the land of snows and forests."

---

When, in after years, Abeka
Told the story of this journey