

tion. Membership cards are now issued in twenty-nine foreign tongues. Its membership includes all ages and classes without limit, the conditions being an intention to read regularly the portions of the Scripture designated and the payment of three cents annual membership, if connected with a branch. A branch must include not less than ten members, and may be formed in connection with a church, a Sunday School, a young people's society, Y.M.C.A., etc. The readings are selected with special reference to the International Sunday School Lessons. Thus they become a most valuable aid in the study of the lessons. Our own lesson helps have carried these headings for years past, and through the courtesy of the I.B.R.A., we use them again this year.
