

variation in each respective signification. Now, without disputation, your laborious application in so tedious an occupation deserves commendation and thinking imitation a sufficient gratification, I am without hesitation, yours,

MARY MODERATION."

Anti-Seebeckism.

Why should the Anti-Seebeck Society succeed? The dues are so low that all can afford to join, thus pledging themselves not to buy, exchange for, accept as a gift or make any effort to obtain any of the stamps known as "Seebecks" or other speculative issues nor try to dispose of any on hand to any fellow collector. Verily these stamps are the biggest nuisance that ever landed on the Philatelic world. They are little less than Counterfeits. Don't touch 'em. Use a blank album and they won't bother you. For 5 cents you can have a member's certificate in the above Society. No dues. Write to
