

OUR
SUNDAY SCHOOL PERIODICALS,
ENLARGED IN SIZE, IMPROVED IN QUALITY, REDUCED IN PRICE.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL BANNER.

No effort shall be spared to make the BANNER increasingly helpful—and, indeed, indispensable to every teacher who would be thoroughly equipped for his work. It contains the best LESSON NOTES published—ENGLISH TEACHERS' NOTES—PRIMARY and INTERMEDIATE NOTES—BLACKBOARD ENGRAVINGS—THREE LESSON HYMNS for each Sunday—QUESTIONS ON THE LESSON, and METHODIST CATECHISM.

Price, 60 cents a year; or only 5 cents a month for six copies and over; single copies, only 65 cents, instead of 75 cents as heretofore.

PLEASANT HOURS.

For the quantity and quality of reading matter it contains, PLEASANT HOURS is now the cheapest Sunday-School paper in the world. It gives more good reading matter in the year than four ordinary library books of 250 pages each, costing about $3.00, and all this for 25, or even for 22 cents. It is only by a very large circulation that it can pay its way at this cheap rate. It is as good as the best, and cheaper than any.

The numbers for 1882 will contain short stories of Early Methodism—stirring tales of Canadian History—choice Poetry—ingenious Puzzles—Notes on the Lessons for every Sunday—Temperance—Methodist Missions—Methodist Catechism—handsome Illustrations—and everything that is good. The Revs. George Cochran, E. R. Young, and other missionary writers, will contribute to it.

Price—Single copies, 30 cents a year; less than 20 copies, 25 cents a year; over 20 copies, 22 cents a year; over 500 copies, 20 cents a year.

THE SUNBEAM.

THE SUNBEAM is especially adapted for the little folks. It is printed in clear, bold type, has plenty of attractive pictures and poetry, and will give both Questions and Answers, and Explanations on each Lesson, which will be a great help to the little ones in understanding its meaning.

Price—Under 25 copies, 15 cents a year; 25 copies and over, 12 cents a year
